CHAPTER I.

EXPLANATION OF THE SYSTEM OF REGISTRATION.

THIS report deals with the trade registered on the rivers and canals of the Lower Provinces of Bengal, with the inland trade of Calcutta, and with the trade, inland and sea-borne, of Chittagong and the Orissa ports. It is based on the returns and reports noted in the margin.

1. Fortnightly return of traffic carried by country boats along the Bhagirathee, the Jellinghee, and the Matabhanga, commonly called the Nuddea rivers.
2. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried by country-boats on the Midnapore, Hidgellee, and Orissa canals, and the Orissa Coast canal.
3. Fortnightly returns of traffic carried to and from Calcutta by country-boats and carts registered at a cordon of 25 stations around Calcutta and Howrah.
4. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company.
5. Quarterly statements of traffic carried on the Megna river by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway.
6. Monthly statements of traffic carried along the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, and the Hooghly rivers to and from Calcutta, by the steamers of the Indian General Steam Navigation Company, and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company.
7. Quarterly statements of traffic carried by country-boats between Bengal and Assam registered at Bhyrub bazar on the Megna river, and at Dhubri on the Brahmaputra.
8. Monthly and quarterly returns of traffic carried to and from Calcutta by the East Indian Railway, and the Eastern Bengal State Railway, and connected lines.
9. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Calcutta.
10. Annual statements of the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong.
11. Annual statements of the sea-borne trade of Balasore, Pooree, and Cuttack.
12. Quarterly returns of internal road traffic registered at Shorghati in the Gya district
13. Quarterly return of inter-provincial traffic carried by country-boats between Bengal and the North-Western Provinces registered at Maniar on the Gogra river.
14. Quarterly, half-yearly, and annual statements showing the wholesale prices per maund of all articles of trade ruling in 12 selected districts.
15. Statements showing the number of laden carts coming into and going out of Calcutta and Howrah in view to ascertaining the extent to which cart traffic is affected by railways.
16. General Administration Reports submitted to Government by Commissioners of Divisions.
17. Special reports on trade submitted to Government by district officers.
18. Annual statement of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta.
19. Annual Report by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, on the administration of the Salt Department.
20. Special reports submitted to Government by the local officers on the condition of the trade on the Nuddea rivers, the Calcutta, Midnapore, Hidgellee, and the Orissa canals, and the Orissa coast canal.

Statistics relative to the rail-borne traffic of these provinces in 1886-87 are reviewed in a separate report called the "Report on the Rail-borne Traffic of Bengal." That report, besides giving an account of the rail-borne trade, internal and external, under the block system of registration, also gives the statistics of the total traffic carried by the State Railways in these provinces. The present report takes no account of rail-borne traffic except in Chapter X, which deals with the trade of Calcutta.

2. During the year under report no change was made in the system under which the internal trade of the province is registered on some of the rivers and canals, and the system of registration of the trade of Calcutta, Chittagong, and the Orissa ports also remained the same as in former years.

Trade along the chief routes.

3. The statistics which are furnished in Chapters II to X of this report include—

The boat traffic registered on the Nuddea rivers.
The boat and steamer traffic registered on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers.
The steamer traffic on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, and the Hooghly rivers.
The boat traffic registered on the Midnapore and Hidgellee canals.
The boat traffic registered on the Orissa canals and the Orissa Coast canal.
The boat traffic registered on the Calcutta canals.

4. The boat traffic on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers, which crosses from Bengal into Assam and vice versâ, is registered at Bhoyrub Bazar and Dhubri under arrangements made by the Assam Administration: statistics of this traffic are incorporated in this report. Boat traffic on these rivers, which does not cross from one province to another, is not registered. The steamers plying on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers between Bengal and Assam belong to the India General Steam Navigation Company, the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, and the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

5. Since February 1886 the India General Steam Navigation Company has run steamers on the Ganges between Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces, and has opened stations at almost all the important trade centres on the Ganges in Behar. No steps have yet been taken to register the intermediate trade; but, in order to make the statistics of the trade of Calcutta as complete as possible, particulars of the traffic carried by these steamers to and from Calcutta during 1886-87 have been obtained, and are embodied in this report.

The Calcutta Steam Navigation Company is running steamers between Calcutta and marts in the Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Nuddea, and Moorshedabad districts, and statistics of this trade also for the past official year have been obtained by Government from the records of the Company, and are published in this report.

6. The acknowledgments of the Lieutenant-Governor are again due to the Agents of all the Companies above named for the courtesy with which they have always permitted their trade statistics to be used by Government.

Trade of large towns and commercial centres.

7. The inland trade of Calcutta, and the inland and sea-borne trade of Chittagong and of the Orissa ports, is described separately in Chapters XI to XII of this report. The entire inland traffic of Calcutta, imports as well as exports, carried by rail, by river steamer, by boat, and by road, is shown in this report. Comparative figures relating to the sea-borne trade of Calcutta in all the articles enumerated in the returns of internal trade are also given, but the sea-borne trade of Calcutta, coasting and foreign, is more fully dealt with in the annual report of the sea-borne trade and navigation of the Bengal Presidency published by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta. In regard to the chief staples, the details furnished show how the imports into Calcutta by sea are distributed over the country, and from what parts of India the goods that were exported by sea, came. The boat and road traffic of Calcutta is registered by means of a cordon of registering stations, 25 in number, placed on the Hooghly and on the canals and roads around Calcutta and the suburbs. For Chittagong, the returns exhibit the sea-borne trade, foreign and coasting, as well as that carried by country boats, while for the Orissa ports the sea-borne trade only is registered.

Registration of inter-provincial road and river traffic.

8. The registration at Balia on the Ganges of the inter-provincial river-borne traffic between Bengal and the North-Western Provinces was, as stated in last year's report, discontinued from the 1st August 1886, and registration at Maniar on the Gogra, ceased on the 31st March 1887.*

Registration of internal road traffic for Public Works purposes.

9. It was stated in the report for 1885-86 that a registering station had been opened at Sherghati in the Gya district, with the view of obtaining statistics of road traffic which would be of use in the event of the Patna-Gya State Railway being extended southwards, or in the event of the chord line of the East Indian Railway being carried from Mogul Serai to Burrakur along the Grand Trunk Road. The statistics† collected for one year, however, showed that the road traffic which passes through Sherghati is very insignificant, and is no index of the great traffic which is likely to be carried over the railway extension. The Public Works Department therefore did not consider it necessary to continue registration there after the 30th September 1887, and the station was accordingly closed from the 1st October, and the establishment dispensed with.

Classification of commodities.

10. The classification of trade articles followed in this report is that which was prescribed in the Government of India's Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce Department Resolution No. $\frac{2}{358-364}$, dated the 14th June 1876, with some modifications made by the Government of Bengal. It was intended that the classification should be assimilated with effect from the year under report to that prescribed by the Government of India's orders of 1886, for rail-borne traffic, with the addition of certain articles which are of provincial and local importance, and with this view a revised classified list was prepared. It was, however, found to be impossible to make arrangements for the adoption of the revised list in tabulation of the returns for 1886-87 and 1887-88, and the revised list will therefore not come into use until the 1st April 1888.

Valuation of commodities.

11. It was stated in the previous year's report that certain modifications had been made in the method of assigning values to indigo, Indian tea, and cotton piece-goods, and that the question of revising the system of valuing other articles of trade was under consideration. Under the orders passed by the Bengal Government, which will have affect from the 1st April 1888, the district officers of the 12 districts named in the margin will submit quarterly, half-yearly, and yearly returns of prices current for such articles only as are important articles of commerce in their respective districts. For the past year the values of all the articles of trade specified in the valuation statement appended, except indigo, tea and European cotton piece-goods, have been assigned according to the system which was explained in previous reports. The price of European cotton piece-goods given in the valuation statement is that which was adopted in the previous year, viz., Rs 63 per maund. The manner in which this price was calculated was explained in paragraph 13, Chapter II of last year's report. With regard to the values to be assigned to "manufactured" and "unmanufactured" goods coming under the head "All other articles of merchandise," instructions were given by the Government of India in circular No. $\frac{18 \text{ Stats.}}{4-8}$, dated the 15th March 1887.

Extent to which cart traffic is affected by railways.

12. In circular No. 62 (Statistics), dated the 28th May 1884, the Government of India remarked that the extent to which cart traffic is affected by railways is a question that should engage attention in any system of road registration adopted in the different provinces. In Bengal the only road traffic which is now registered is (1) that along the frontiers of Nepal, Sikkim, Tibet, and Bhutan between the districts of Chumparun and Julpigoree, and (2) that which comes into and goes out of Calcutta. There is no cart traffic of importance on the frontier. As regards the Calcutta trade, there are 13 stations at which cart traffic is registered, viz.,—

Calcutta side.	Howrah side.
1. Kamardanga.	1. Baloor.
2. Behala.	2. Belgachee.
3. Gurreah.	3. Bankra.
4. Jhinjerpool.	4. Santragachee.
5. Bon-Hooghly.	5. Makoosah.
6. Moteejheel.
7. Mateabrooj.
8. Koaropookur.

The following are the statistics of the number of carts registered at these stations during the past two years:—

	Number of laden carts
	Coming into Calcutta and Howrah.	Going out of Calcutta and Howrah.
On the Calcutta side—
1885-86 ...	399,077	155,407

1886-87 ...	22,531	41,705
Total ... 1885-86 ...	420,298	188,347
Total ... 1886-87 ...	366,434	186,208

The difference between the figures given in the two columns above is due to the fact that empty carts coming to and going from Howrah and Calcutta are not registered. The number of laden carts registered on the Calcutta side during the year under report fell off by 66,078, as compared with the previous year. The largest falling off occurred on (1) the Barrackpore road, (2) the Baraset-Jessore road, and (3) the Mojilpore-Joynuggur road. The registering station on the Barrackpore road is situated at Bon-Hooghly, where only 51,587 carts were registered during 1886-87, against 74,826 in the preceding year. The traffic on this road is entirely local. The station on the Baraset-Jessore road is at Kamardanga, where only 170,612 carts were registered in 1886-87, against 180,457 in 1885-86. The station on the Mojilpore-Joynuggur road is at Gurreah, where 32,659 carts were registered, against 40,286 in the previous year. The Baraset-Jessore road is in direct competition with the Bengal Central Railway, while the Mojilpore-Joynuggur road competes with the Diamond Harbour extension of the Calcutta and South-Eastern State Railway.

13. The following comparative statement has been prepared from the figures available, showing the trade in the principal staples carried to and from Calcutta by the Baraset-Jessore road and by the Bengal Central Railway, during the past two years :—

These figures show that a great deal of the trade which used to be carried to and from Calcutta by carts is now being conveyed by the Bengal Central Railway.

CHAPTER II.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE SEASONS AND RESULTS OF THE HARVESTS AND NOTICE OF PRICES.

General summary of the season.

The rainfall during the year was generally sufficient and well distributed, and consequently the year was, on the whole, one of agricultural prosperity. The rice crop was excellent, except in the Chota Nagpore Division, in parts of the Patna Division, particularly Durbhunga, in the north of the Tipperah district, in Bhagulpore district, and in Hill Tipperah. As to Chota Nagpore, the Commissioner reports an average harvest in Lohardugga and Hazaribagh, some deficiency in Manbhoom and Singbhoom. The local failures were due to inundation, and in the case of Hill Tipperah to the ravages of rats. For the wheat crop the information is incomplete, but the outturn appears to have been good, and in Behar excellent. The jute crop suffered to some extent from excessive rainfall in the Dinagepore, Rajshahye, Pubna, and Darjeeling districts, and from excessive floods in the Dacca and Tipperah districts, but notwithstanding the injury done, the whole outturn of the crop was above the average.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF AGRICULTURAL STAPLES.

2. The average wholesale prices which ruled in Bengal during 1886-87 for the principal agricultural staples are compared below with the figures of the preceding year :—

Notwithstanding that the jute crop was larger in the past year than in the year before, the average price per maund showed a rise of a little over 11½ per cent. The Collector of Customs remarks that "by some it is argued that the higher range of prices of the past year was entirely due to the lower rates of exchange ruling, and probably there is some truth in this view, as the lower exchange would enable the exporter to give a higher rupee price, while he could lay down the jute in England at the same sterling prices." Owing to good crops in the past year, the prices of food-grains showed a falling off. Regarding lac, the Customs report shows that there was an advance in prices of shell-lac and button-lac at the beginning of the year, which was afterwards lost, and prices were "weak and drooping" throughout the year generally. In stick lac there has been little or no export by sea since 1883-84. The fall in the prices of Indian tea, which have been lower than in any previous year, is ascribed to large production, and it is stated that the enormous increase in the outturn—nearly 10 million pounds—has been too much for the market to carry off at profitable rates to the growers.

RETAIL PRICES OF FOOD-GRAINS.

Compared with the average prices ruling in the three previous years, wheat showed a decline in price of 10·31 per cent., barley of 16·34 per cent., rice, best sort, of 1·36 per cent., common rice of 9·7 per cent., millets of 13·79 per cent., maize or Indian corn of 10·84 per cent., and gram of 4·53 per cent. The districts in which the price of common rice was lowest were—

5. The sea-borne trade in dressed hides is now of no importance, and the rise in the value of this article is attributed to increased local demand. As regards undressed hides, the increase in price was due to the fact that there was throughout the year a good demand in Calcutta for exports by sea, and all receipts were readily taken up by buyers, so that there was no accumulation of stocks. There was a demand in Calcutta for dressed and undressed skins for exports by sea, specially to the United States, to which the exports of both these classes of goods were the highest since 1882-83. The advance in the price of "other" metals is due to a greater demand for lead and zinc. Owing to the increasing requirements of tea gardens, the imports of sheet-lead for tea canisters last year were the highest yet reached. As regards zinc, it is stated that there was a constant demand throughout the year for hard spelter at steady prices. Soft spelter, however, was not so much wanted and there was a fall in value. With the decrease in the manufacture of saltpetre in Behar, owing to floods, the price of miscellaneous saline substances rose by over 71¾ per cent. The imports of pepper during the past year were far below the average of previous years, and probably on this account prices were higher. Large supplies of French and English silk piece-goods were imported into Calcutta during the past year, and the consumption of these goods also increased considerably, owing no doubt to the prosperous condition of the country. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, states that "the declared values of the goods imported from all the countries supplying silk piece-goods show heavy reductions in comparison with previous years, notwithstanding the fact that the price of raw silk advanced in the home markets." The increase in the price of foreign tea (the imports of which article into the port of Calcutta fell off slightly) is due to the great advance in the price of China tea from Hong-Kong and the Straits Settlements, as the following figures, compiled from the Customs report for 1886-87, will show:—

	Price of tea per lb. 1885-86. As.	P.	1886-87. As.	P.
From China—Hong-Kong	4	11	6	6	or an increase of 32·20 per cent.
,, Straits Settlements	5	3	5	10	ditto 11·11 ,,
,, Other countries (mostly Ceylon)	11	1	10	4	or a decrease of 6·77 ,,

6. Very little madder or manjit is now sent to European countries, and the fall noticed above in the price of this article is due to the want of demand for local consumption. The returns of the sea-borne trade show a small advance in the exports of safflower during the past year, and the average price also indicates an increase of 6·91 per cent. The consignments to Europe must have consisted of the very best quality of safflower. The prices given by local officers which represent the average price of all qualities, show a fall of 18¾ per cent. There was not throughout the year any great demand for turmeric for export, and this led to a fall in price, which was very low. As regards the falling off in the price of tin, the import trade of Calcutta by sea during the past year is said to have been "in a very healthy state throughout the period under review."

CHAPTER III.

COUNTRY BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE NUDDEA RIVERS.

The total quantity and value of the trade registered on the Nuddea rivers during 1886-87, is compared below with the figures of the two previous years:—

2. The result of the year's registration was an advance in the down-stream traffic of 13,81,250 maunds, or 21·66 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 6,97,835 maunds, or 9·88 per cent. as compared with 1884-85, but a falling off in the up-stream traffic of 4,75,055 maunds or 18·59 per cent., and 6,78,825 maunds, or 24·61 per cent. on the figures of the preceding two years, respectively. The total quantity of the trade, however, showed an advance of 9,06,195 maunds, or 10·15 per cent. on the returns of the previous year, and it was very near the level of the figures for 1884-85.

3. The Jungipore returns showed the largest decrease, namely, 5·74 per cent. in the down-stream, and 24·57 per cent. in the up-stream traffic, as compared with 1885-86. The country boats on the Bhagiruthee route have now not only to compete with the loop line of the East Indian Railway in the conveyance of goods between Calcutta and Behar and the Upper Provinces, but also since February 1886 with the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company. The returns of the Nuddea toll station indicate a large increase of 62·40 per cent. in the down traffic as compared with the previous year, due to the abundant harvests of the year; but the up-stream traffic fell off by 17·58 per cent., while the Kissengunge station on the Matabhanga, showed a heavy falling off, the quantity registered being 41·12 per cent. below the figures of 1885-86, namely, 22·19 per cent. in the down traffic and 47·41 per cent. in the up traffic. The figures of the Hanskhally station rose by 46·68 per cent. in the down traffic, and by 3·44 per cent. in the up traffic, in comparison with the trade of the previous year. This increase was due to the condition of the river being favourable to navigation, and to the excellent outturn of crops in the eastern districts.

4. As regards the down-stream traffic, the largest increase during the past year as compared with 1885-86, was in wheat (8,92,640 maunds), rice (7,25,596 maunds), gram (2,39,854 maunds), and tobacco (46,421 maunds); and the articles showing the largest decrease were linseed (3,57,713 maunds), mustard seed (45,962 maunds), til and other oilseeds (75,740 maunds), timber (41,696 maunds), and gunnies (197,094 bags). In the up-stream traffic, the most important items which contributed to the decrease, were European cotton piece-goods (Rs. 6,58,020), paddy (4,23,740 maunds), and salt (94,987 maunds); while gunnies showed an advance of 277,516 bags. The number of laden boat-passing down and up the Nuddea rivers, is shown below:—

The details of the Calcutta trade, which are shown in the two final columns of the foregoing statement, will be separately dealt with elsewhere in this report. The following paragraphs notice briefly the chief articles of traffic upon this route.

6. Jute, raw.—The quantity of jute carried during the year under review was practically the same as in the preceding two years. The amount of jute sent last year to Calcutta was 9,71,591 maunds, and to Bhuddressar, in the Hooghly district, 2,41,680 maunds. This latter supply was for the most part obtained from Dulalgunge in Purneah (2,37,803 maunds). The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 7·92 per cent. of the total imports by all routes.

7. Gunnies.—There was a very heavy decline in the trade in hand-made gunnies, of which only 78,036 bags were registered during the year, against 275,130 bags in 1885-86, and 349,812 bags in 1884-85. The number of bags despatched to Calcutta was 40,346, and to other places 37,690, of which 32,025 bags were carried to Bhuddressar, chiefly from Dulalgunge in Purneah.

8. Wheat—The quantity registered was 14,35,522 maunds, showing an increase of 8,92,640 maunds, and 6,27,985 maunds, compared with 1885-86, and 1884-85, respectively. The wheat brought to the market last year, was, however, the yield of 1885-86, in which year a very good rubbee crop was harvested.

The different trade blocks from which the past year's supply was received, are shown in the subjoined statement.

The largest supply of wheat passing down these rivers during 1886-87 was obtained from Eastern Bengal, that part of the Nuddea district east of the Matabhanga and the Hooghly rivers contributing 5,44,926 maunds. Of this quantity 4,37,893 maunds followed the Jellinghee route, and the remainder the Matabhanga route. In his General Administration Report for 1886-87, the Commissioner of the Presidency Division makes the following remarks regarding the cultivation of and trade in wheat in the Nuddea district:—

"The cultivation of wheat as an article of trade was carried on more extensively during the year under report than in any of the preceding years, and the wheat exported from the district was considerably larger in quantity and better in quality. The whole district being intersected by rivers, the soil is subject to annual inundations which leave a rich alluvial deposit upon the ground, and fit it to yield excellent cold weather crops. The cultivation of wheat has been thus expanding in this district since the year 1884 85, when it received a special stimulus from the loss of the winter rice which occurred in that year."

The bulk of the wheat sent from Behar came by the Bhagiruthee. The largest despatches were made from Bhagulpore (1,80,816 maunds), and Monghyr (1,25,685 maunds); Sarun exported 34,918 maunds, and Patna 11,354 maunds, while other districts sent only 11,297 maunds. The supply carried from Western Bengal comprised* 2,82,478 maunds shipped from Moorshedabad, and 44,985 maunds from Burdwan, while that from Northern Bengal included for the most part the Purneah and Maldah wheat exported both via the Bhagiruthee and the Jellinghee rivers. Out of the past year's traffic, the supply brought down to Calcutta was 14,08,510 maunds, and of the remaining 27,012 maunds, Hooghly received 14,201 maunds, Moorshedabad 5,937 maunds, Burdwan 3,481 maunds, and Nuddea 3,393 maunds.

The quantity shipped for Calcutta by this route was 12·79 per cent. of the total imports, against 81·82 per cent. attracted to the East Indian Railway, and 1·47 per cent. to the Eastern Bengal State Railway.

9. Gram and Pulse.—Under this head an increase is shown of 2,39,854 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and of 26,283 maunds as compared with 1884-85, due to the excellent rubbi harvest of 1885-86. The entire supply during 1886-87, was shipped from the trade blocks mentioned below:—

The imports via the Bhagiruthee and the Jellinghee were almost equal in quantity, while those through the Matabhanga were about half a lakh of maunds less than the supply carried by the other two routes. Almost the entire supply carried from Eastern Bengal, represents exports from that part of Nuddea, which lies on the east of the Matabhanga and Hooghly rivers. Moorshedabad with 1,83,260 maunds, supplied the largest quantity from Western Bengal. Of the Behar districts, the largest exporters were Patna (73,877 maunds), Monghyr (54,277), Shahabad (30,005 maunds), and Sarun (21,195 maunds). The bulk of the Northern Bengal supply was despatched from Rajshahye (73,670 maunds), and Maldah (53,747 maunds). Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta imported 8,70,128 maunds. The remainder, which amounted to 28,240 maunds, was delivered in small quantities at the different marts in Hooghly (7,642 maunds), Nuddea (7,496 maunds), Burdwan (6,231 maunds), Moorshedabad (5,968 maunds), and other places (903 maunds). Last year the total imports of these cereals into Calcutta by all routes amounted to 42,24,848 maunds, 50·34 per cent. of which was carried by the East Indian Railway, and 10·38 per cent. by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, while the Nuddea rivers route contributed 20·59 per cent. against, 19·04 per cent. in the previous year.

10 Other spring crops.—There was a decrease of 27,649 maunds and 95,224 maunds in the quantities registered during the past year, as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The following statement shows the different trade blocks from which miscellaneous spring crops were exported during the year under report:—

More than half of the past year's supply came from the Behar districts, while the remainder was chiefly made up of exports from the three districts of Moorshedabad, Nuddea, and Maldah. This trade was for the most part with Calcutta.

11. Rice and Paddy.—The total quantities of rice and paddy registered during the past three years, were—

After converting paddy into rice at the rate of 25 seers of rice to a maund of paddy, the total traffic amounts to 9,37,270 maunds, against 2,22,370 maunds in 1885-86, and 2,70,804 maunds in 1884-85, the increase being due to the plentiful harvests of the past year. The several trade blocks which contributed to the rice trade during 1886-87, are detailed below :—

As was to be expected, the largest consignments of rice were from Northern Bengal, the exports from which block formed nearly 64 per cent. of the total trade. The district of Dinagepore alone shipped 4,70,811 maunds; the route followed was the Matabhanga river. The other districts which supplied large quantities were Bogra, 53,452 maunds and Rajshahye, 38,740 maunds. From Western Bengal, the Burdwan district exported 1,87,132 maunds, and Moorshedabad 1,22,250 maunds. The quantity brought down to Calcutta was 8,18,302 maunds, and the distribution of the remaining 1,18,968 maunds, is shown in the following statement :—

Last year the quantity of rice carried to Calcutta by this route was 5·88 per cent. of the total imports by all routes, against 4·28 per cent. in the previous year.

12. Mats.—Under this head, there was an increase of Rs. 2,149 worth of mats as compared with 1885-86, but a decrease of Rs. 1,645 when compared with 1884-85. Mats to the value of Rs. 2,225 were sent to Calcutta, and the remainder (Rs. 12,110 worth) was consigned to Nuddea (Rs. 12,085 worth), and Hooghly (Rs. 25 worth).

13. Oilseeds.—The total trade in oilseeds registered during the past three years, was :—

The decrease under linseed amounted to 3,57,713 maunds and 2,23,891 maunds, as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. In the following statement the total quantity carried down stream during 1886-87, is distributed according to the different trade blocks from which the supplies were exported :—

The largest quantities were received from the Behar block, the principal exporting districts being Durbhunga (1,17,786 maunds), Monghyr (1,02,826 maunds), Champaran (74,062 maunds), and Bhagulpore (43,871 maunds). The Western Bengal supply comprised 79,302 maunds shipped from Moorshedabad, and 47,466 maunds from Burdwan. The exports from the Eastern Bengal block was practically limited to the district of Nuddea, which sent 1,32,359 maunds; while as regards Northern Bengal, shipments from Rajshahye amounted to 34,167 maunds, those from Purneah to 30,150 maunds, those from Maldah to 18,992 maunds, those from Pubna to 15,856 maunds, and those from Dinagepore to 1,862 maunds. The quantity brought to Calcutta was 7,75,955 maunds, and to other places 10,969 maunds, of which Bhuddressar received 6,544 maunds chiefly from Dulalgunge. Under mustard seed, however, the fluctuations in the total quantity registered were normal. The crop is said to have been below the average. The statement below shows the quantities exported from each trade block during the past official year:—

Behar with 5,20,001 maunds, supplied 4·48 per cent. of the total trade. Of the several districts comprised in this block, Bhagulpore despatched the largest quantity, namely, 2,18,824 maunds; Monghyr contributed 1,15,296 maunds, Durbhunga 1,00,935 maunds, Sarun 41,473 maunds, Chumparun 32,963 maunds, and other districts 10,510 maunds. Of the Northern Bengal supply, 1,95,051 maunds were carried from Purneah, and the rest from other districts, of which Pubna exported 14,650 maunds. The quantity consigned to Calcutta was 7,73,046 maunds, the remainder, 55,811 maunds, being distributed as follows:—

Last year the total quantities of linseed and mustard seed carried to Calcutta by boat along the Nuddea rivers were 10·04 per cent. and 28·36 per cent., respectively, of the total imports of these seeds by all routes.

14. Silk, raw—The silk trade amounted to 141 maunds against 636 maunds in 1885-86, and 138 maunds in 1884-85. The entire supply was distributed in the Moorshedabad district.

15. Silk, manufactured.—The total value of these goods registered was Rs. 15,200, showing a decrease of Rs. 23,150 compared with 1885-86, and of Rs. 4,918 compared with 1884-85. This is entirely local traffic between Sibgunge in Maldah, and Khagra and Baloochur in the Moorshedabad district.

16. Sugar, drained.—The traffic under this head fell off from 17,977 maunds in 1884-85 to 8,899 maunds in 1885-86, and to 7,190 maunds in 1886-87. The Calcutta imports amounted to 4,095 maunds, while 3,095 maunds went for consumption in the Moorshedabad, Burdwan, and Nuddea districts.

17. Sugar, undrained.—Under this head an increase is shown of 21,513 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and of 6,324 maunds as compared with 1884 85. Out of the total supply during the past year, Calcutta imported 21,925 maunds, while of the remainder, 11,541 maunds were sent to Hooghly, 10,108 maunds to Burdwan, 9,180 maunds to Moorshedabad, and 4,241 maunds to Nuddea.

18. Tobacco.—This trade shows a steady increase. In 1884-85 the total quantity amounted to 1,40,771 maunds, in 1885-86 it rose to 1,55,408 maunds, while in 1886-87 it was 2,01,829 maunds. The tobacco crop during the past year is reported to have been good in Behar, but not good in Northern Bengal, and there was also a favourable market for this article. The Calcutta consignment during the past year, was only 58,666 maunds, and the remainder (1,43,163 maunds) was distributed as follows:—

19. Timber.—There was a large decrease in this trade, the total quantity being 1,60,960 maunds against 2,02,656 maunds in 1885-86, and 3,03,163 maunds in 1884-85. Of the past year's trade, Calcutta received 1,09,363 maunds, Hooghly 44,020 maunds, Moorshedabad 4,092 maunds, and other districts 3,485 maunds.

20. Up-stream traffic—The quantities and values of the important articles of traffic carried upwards during the past three years, are given in the subjoined statement:—

The large traffic during 1885-86 was due to the temporary divergence of the trade from the railway to country boats on account of the stoppage in September 1885, of through booking of goods with the Eastern Bengal State Railway, consequent upon serious breaks on that line caused by floods. The following statement furnishes the details of the trade during 1886-87.

The decrease during the past year was due to the fact that the tracts which suffered from the effects of inundation in 1885-86 had no occasion last year to import food-grains for local consumption. The following statement shows all the exporting districts and the places of destination in respect of the past year's supply:—

CHAPTER IV.

TRAFFIC ON THE GANGES, THE BHAGIRUTHEE, AND THE HOOGHLY RIVERS CARRIED BY INLAND STEAMERS.

It was stated in paragraph 4, Chapter I of the report for 1885-86 that, in order that the statistics of the trade of Calcutta might be made as complete as possible, arrangements had been made to obtain particulars of the trade carried to and from Calcutta by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Calcutta Steam Navigation Company, running on the Ganges, the Bhagiruthee, and the Hooghly. Statistics of the through-booked traffic to and from Calcutta carried by the steamers of these two companies during 1886-87, are given below. The different stations opened by the companies are:—

2. The total weight and value of merchandise carried by inland steamers along the Ganges and the Hooghly rivers to, and from, Calcutta registered during 1886-87, are as follows:—

3. It will be seen that the import trade was double the export trade. By far the largest traffic was carried on with Behar, which contributed 74·99 per cent. of the total imports, and 58·66 per cent. of the total exports. From Western Bengal, the imports amounted to 18·66 per cent. and the exports to

21·28 per cent. of the total trade. The principal staples comprising the imports and export traffic, are exhibited in the following statement:—

4. The foregoing statement shows that the imports into Calcutta consisted chiefly of Indian cotton piece-goods, potatoes, food-grains, hides, saltpetre, oilseeds, betelnuts, and sugar. In the export trade, European cotton piece-goods to the value of over 24 lakhs of rupees are shown to have been carried from Calcutta, while the traffic in iron and salt exceeded a lakh of maunds in each case. Large quantities of coal, oils, spices, &c., were also carried by these steamers.

CHAPTER V.

TRADE BY COUNTRY BOATS ON THE MEGNA RIVER TO, AND FROM, CHITTAGONG.

The total quantity and value of the trade carried by country boats along the Megna river to and from Chittagong during the past three years, are shown in the following statement:—

2. While the import traffic fell off by 24·69 per cent. in comparison with the previous year, the export trade showed an enormous increase of 22,42,627 maunds, or 402·07 per cent., owing to the large export of bamboos, which were registered to the number of 12,630,000 during the year under review. This number, at the rate of five bamboos to the maund, represents 25,26,000 maunds, thus leaving only 2,74,385 maunds to represent the remainder of the export trade.

In the import trade, the largest decrease as compared with 1885-86, was in rice (5,48,779 maunds), while the articles which showed the largest increase were—paddy (1,22,722 maunds), gram and pulse (37,276 maunds), and betel-nuts (20,493 maunds). Under exports, bamboos, showed an increase of 11,383,950 in number, salt of 1,36,094 maunds, and raw cotton of 18,585 maunds; while timber showed a decrease of 40,890 maunds.

3. The following comparative statement shows all the important articles of merchandise, registered during the past three years:—

CHAPTER VI.

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE MIDNAPORE AND HIDGELLEE CANALS.

THE total quantity and value of the traffic on the Midnapore and Hidgellee canals carried by boat during the past three years, were as follows:—

2. It will be seen that the gross weight of goods carried both ways during the past year, was 5,11,246 maunds, or 10·57 per cent. below the figures of 1885-86, and 4,73,037 maunds, or 9·86 per cent. below those of 1884-85. The traffic upon the Midnapore canal fell off by 13·87 per cent. as compared with the previous year, and that upon the Hidgellee canal by 2·42 per cent. Regarding the condition of the trade on the Midnapore canal, the Executive Engineer, Cossye Division, writes—

"The heavy decrease in April resulted from the long closure of the tidal reaches for silt clearance during March and April 1886; and from the returns it would seem that trade was slow in returning to the canal. What, however, really affected the returns so unfavourably and caused the heavy decreases from September to January was the unusual cheapness of rice in the Hooghly district this year. Consequently rice and paddy could not be exported from the irrigated districts under Midnapore even with the usual profit."

Concerning the Hidgellee canal, the Executive Engineer, Balasore Division, makes the following remarks:—

"The state of these canals in their present condition is eminently unsatisfactory. The boatmen suffered much delay owing to the silted state of the entrances, having to wait in the entrances of the various locks till nearly high tide. It is earnestly hoped that early sanction may be accorded to the estimate for their remodelling."

3. The articles in which the largest decrease occurred, as compared with the trade of the previous year, were—rice (4,69,586 maunds), cotton piece-goods European (Rs. 4,47,315), Indian cotton piece-goods (Rs. 77,750), undrained sugar (48,041 maunds), vegetables (24,287 maunds), gram and pulse (20,208 maunds), brass and copper (16,240 maunds), mustard-seed (15,403 maunds), and tobacco (12,119 maunds); and the staples which showed a marked improvement were—timber (44,257 maunds), raw jute (15,148 maunds), paddy (11,782 maunds), and mats (Rs. 10,932). The number of laden boats registered at the several toll stations on the canals during the past three years, was as follows:—

Last year the share of Calcutta was 45·32 per cent. of the import trade, but only 26·29 per cent. of the export trade. Compared with 1885-86, the figures of the Midnapore district showed a decrease of 1,00,872 maunds under imports, and of 5,48,060 maunds under exports. The trade of Hooghly also showed a falling off, namely, 59,477 maunds under imports, and 4,920 maunds under exports. With the opening of the Orissa Coast Canal, Balasore has for the first time appeared in the returns of the past year:

The two final columns of the foregoing statement show the proportion of the Calcutta traffic to the total trade. This section of the traffic is separately dealt with in this report. The following remarks relate to the important items of local traffic.

5. Cotton piece-goods, Indian.—The trade in Indian piece-goods has largely diminished, the total value amounted to Rs. 1,21,000, against Rs. 1,98,750 in 1885-86, and Rs. 3,05,140 in 1884-85. Excluding the Calcutta portion of the trade, there remained Rs. 1,000 worth of goods, which went to Kharooberiah in Hooghly from Ghattal in the Midnapore district.

6. Fruits, nuts and vegetables.—The gross weight registered fell off from 1,04,864 maunds in 1884-85 to 83,941 maunds in 1885-86, and 59,654 maunds in 1886-87. The supply despatched to and from Calcutta was 50,926 maunds, while the remainder 8,728 maunds was distributed as follows:—

7. Rice and paddy.—The total quantities of rice and paddy registered during the past three years, are shown in the following statement:—

The figures under rice showed a heavy decline, namely, 4,69,586 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and 6,14,769 maunds as compared with 1884-85. The Executive Engineer, Cossye Division, explains that owing to the unusual cheapness of rice in the Hooghly district, transactions were restricted from September to January, causing the decrease noticed above. After excluding the figures of the Calcutta trade, amounting to 7,91,048 maunds of rice and 7,90,928 maunds of paddy, there remained 66,146 maunds of rice and 10,19,237 maunds of paddy. Of this latter supply, the local trade of the Midnapore district, was as follows:—

8. Provisions, other than ghee.—There was some recovery in the trade under this head, the total quantity amounting to 38,020 maunds, or 8,775 maunds more than in 1885-86, but less than in 1884-85 by 16,397 maunds. The supply sent to, and from, Calcutta during the past year was 36,329 maunds, while only 1,691 maunds represent inter-district trade between the different marts in Midnapore, Hooghly, and Balasore.

9. Sugar, undrained.—The total quantity of undrained sugar was 67,014 maunds against 1,15,055 maunds in 1885-86, and 1,12,999 maunds in 1884-85. The amount of the Calcutta traffic was 58,801 maunds, and of the other districts 8,213 maunds. Of this latter item, 5,198 maunds represent the local trade of the Midnapore district, and 3,015 maunds the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly and the 24-Pergunnahs district.

10. Tobacco.—The total quantity registered was 91,666 maunds, showing a decrease of 12,119 maunds and 22,780 maunds in comparison with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The amount of the Calcutta trade was 88,197 maunds, and of the remainder, 2,639 maunds represent the local trade of the Midnapore district.

11. Timber.—The total trade in timber amounted to 1,14,014 maunds against 69,757 maunds in 1885-86, and 1,85,839 maunds in 1884-85. The quantity of the local trade of the Midnapore district was 79,152 maunds; the supply sent to and from Calcutta by this route was 32,398 maunds, while the remainder (2,464 maunds) represents the trade between Midnapore, Hooghly, 24-Pergunnahs and Balasore.

2. As compared with 1885-86, the decrease in the downward traffic amounted to 4,81,309 maunds, or 46·38 per cent., and in the up traffic to 64,412 maunds, or 16·25 per cent. The following remarks of the Executive Engineer, Brahminee-Byturnee Division, describe the general condition of the traffic carried along these canals during the past official year:—

"There has been a considerable decrease in traffic which is due to the failure of the Mahanuddy anicut in June 1886, which greatly interfered with navigation in the canals throughout the latter half of the year. It was also impossible to supply water in sufficient quantity for irrigation, which caused some damage to crops.

3. The number of loaded boats of which the cargoes were registered during the past three years, was as follows:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	No.	No.	No.
Down	4,160	3,615	2,033

4. The entire traffic carried over these canals during the past three years, is shown in the following table according to the different districts, which contributed to the trade:—

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA COAST CANAL.

6. A portion of the Orissa Coast Canal was opened for trade in July 1885. The total quantity and value of the traffic conveyed by this route since that period, are given below:—

	1885-86 (nine months).		1886-87.
	Quantity.	Value.	Quantity.	Value.

Total ...	3,65,388	8,14,561	7,58,388	16,18,623

7. The Executive Engineer, Balasore Division, observes—

"It is premature to speak of the whole canal from one year's experience of the traffic on one range, but there is every indication of this excellent beginning developing into a prosperous future when the other ranges are complete and Hidgellee tidal canal remodelled, and line of communication open throughout."

8. The number of loaded boats registered was as follows:—

	Down.	Up.	Total.
	No.	No.	No.
July 1885 to March 1886	2,735	2,760	5,495
1886-87	4,747	4,716	9,463

9. The following statement shows the total traffic of the different districts since July 1885:—

Last year 78·09 per cent. of the imports were destined for Calcutta; while as regards the export trade, Midnapore contributed 63·24 per cent. Balasore 23·20 per cent., and Calcutta only 13·54 per cent. of the total traffic.

CHAPTER VIII.

BOAT TRAFFIC ON THE CALCUTTA CANALS.

The total quantity and value of merchandise imported into, and exported from, Calcutta viâ the Calcutta canals during the past three years, are shown in the following statement:—

	Quantity of goods registered by weight.			Value of all articles of trade.

Boats passing along the canals, which have been loaded, or which are to be unloaded, at the Port Commissioners' wharves on the Hooghly river, are not registered at the stations on these canals, because they are registered at the Port Commissioners' wharves.

2. It will be seen that the total weight of the trade of 1886-87, carried both ways was 5·28 per cent. over that of the preceding year, but 1·23 per cent. below the figures for 1884-85. The advance in the import trade was 7,26,782 maunds, as compared with 1885-86, while the export trade increased by 1,77,073 maunds. The largest increase in the import trade during the past year as compared with 1885-86, was in provisions (2,14,474 maunds), gram and pulse (1,05,911 maunds), betelnuts (93,447 maunds), and firewood (53,161 maunds), while the articles which showed the largest decrease were raw jute (3,62,673 maunds), vegetables (2,16,630 maunds), lime and lime-stone (1,23,623 maunds), and rice (42,228 maunds). Of the staples in the export traffic, oils showed the largest increase, namely 3,12,634 maunds, as compared with the preceding year, and the other items which showed an advance were mustard seed (39,742 maunds), iron (37,943 mannds), and tobacco (12,312 maunds); the articles in which the falling off was most marked were salt (55,102 maunds, and paddy (25,448 maunds). Detailed statements in connection with this trade will be found among the appendices attached to this report.

CHAPTER IX.

TRAFFIC ON THE BRAHMAPUTRA AND MEGNA RIVERS, INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL (WITH ASSAM).

As explained in the Report of the two previous years, the registration of traffic on the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers is, under existing arrangements, limited to a record of the trade under three different heads, namely—

(1) Traffic carried by the River Steamer Companies;
(2) Traffic carried by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal State Railway; and
(3) Trade of Bengal with Assam carried by country boats.

2. The result of the registration, in respect of the traffic carried along these two routes during the year 1886-87, is separately given under each of these heads in the following pages. A consolidated statement, showing the river-borne trade of Bengal with the Brahmaputra and Surma valleys of the Province of Assam carried by steamer, as well as by country boat during the past year, is appended to this report.

RIVER-BORNE TRAFFIC CARRIED BY THE RIVER STEAMER COMPANIES.

3. The total quantity and value of the trade, carried along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers by the steamers of the India General Steam Navigation Company, and the Rivers Steam Navigation Company, during the past official year, as compared with the figures of the two previous years, are shown in the following table:—

The total weight of goods carried during the past year was 9·30 per cent. less than in the preceding year, but 1,15,641 maunds, or 1·97 per cent. higher than in 1884-85. The weight carried downwards showed a decrease of 15·13 per cent. and 3·35 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively; while in the upward trip there was an advance in the past year as compared with the two previous years, the figures being 15,92,823 maunds in 1884-85, 17,28,818 maunds in 1885-86, and 18,52,050 maunds in 1886-87. The gross decrease in the trade on the Brahmaputra route amounted to 12·20 per cent. and on the Megna route to 4·08 per cent. in comparison with 1885-86. An analysis of the trade of Bengal and Assam shows in comparison with 1885-86 a falling off of 4,59,264 maunds in the imports, but an increase of 2,33,728 maunds in the exports, as regards Bengal, and a decrease of 1,10,496 maunds in the exports, and of 2,78,105 maunds in the imports, as regards Assam.

4. Of all the staples, the trade in European cotton piece-goods showed the largest decrease, namely, Rs. 23,24,532 in value as compared with the preceding year. The decline under mustard-seed was also heavy, amounting to 4,15,714 maunds. The other items, which showed a marked falling off, were raw jute, 1,75,024 maunds, rice 1,04,625 maunds, hides of cattle 1,30,533 pieces, liquors Rs. 95,806, betelnuts 69,745 maunds, and gram and pulses 52,589 maunds. On the other hand, the articles which exhibited a noticeable improvement over the trade of the previous year were coal 1,92,957 maunds, drugs and medicines not intoxicating Rs. 1,88,787, oils 1,64,909 maunds, and salt 1,04,478 maunds.

The details of the Calcutta traffic will be discussed in the chapter dealing with the trade of Calcutta in another section of this report; the following remarks relate to the fluctuations in the important articles of local traffic.

6. Caoutchouc or India rubber.—The quantity carried downwards from Assam fell off by 2,649 maunds and 3,569 maunds, as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. After deducting the consignments to Calcutta, there remained 1,639 maunds, out of which 1,579 maunds went to Goalundo, and 60 maunds to Naraingunge. The imports into Goalundo came from Seebsaugar (779 maunds), Luckimpore (500 maunds), Darrang (200 maunds), and from Goalpara (200 maunds), while Naraingunge received its supply from Chuttuck.

7. Coal.—There was a considerable increase of 1,92,957 maunds in the quantity registered during the past year as compared with 1885-86. The advance in the supplies carried from Bengal was small, the figures being 3,76,661 maunds against 3,51,522 maunds in 1885-86; but the exports from Luckimpore in Assam rose from 91,707 maunds in 1885-86 to 2,59,519 maunds in 1886-87. The coal mines in the Brahmaputra valley, besides supplying the province of Assam with coal, furnish considerable quantities for export. The destination of the imports from Lukhimpore was as follows:—

	1885-86.	1886-87
	Mds.	Mds.
To Goalundo	48,571	1,92,294
„ Calcutta	36,136	24,676
„ Dacca	...	24,655
„ Serajgunge	7,000	17,894
Total ...	91,707	2,59,519

The entire quantity of the past year's exports from Bengal, went from Calcutta, with the exception of 166 maunds sent from other places. The supply of coal carried to Assam fell off by 47,986 maunds, and that carried to Serajgunge increased by 70,701 maunds, as compared with the preceding year.

8. Drugs and medicines, not intoxicating.—The total value of this trade amounted to Rs. 3,08,462, showing an advance of Rs. 1,88,787 as compared with 1885-86, and of Rs. 2,16,615 as compared with 1884-85. The entire supply during the past year was exported from Calcutta, with the exception of Rs. 2,662 worth which went from the Eastern Bengal Block. The total quantity carried to Assam was valued at Rs. 3,05,278 against Rs. 1,09,250 in the previous year.

9. Gunnies.—There was a decrease of 80,170 bags and 91,086 bags under this head, as compared with the supplies registered during 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. Last year the exports from Calcutta were limited to 31,454 bags, against 81,528 bags in the previous year, the quantity sent to Assam from this block being only 2,792 bags, against 46,771 bags in the other year. In 1885-86 the exports of gunnies to Assam from Northern Bengal were 26,286 bags, but in the year under report, only 870 bags were despatched to that province. The supplies carried to Dacca from Calcutta also fell off by 17,561 bags, while the exports to Northern Bengal increased by 11,466 bags in comparision with the previous year.

10. Gram and pulses.—A decrease of 52,589 maunds is shown in the total traffic under this head as compared with 1885-86, but the figures indicate an increase of 40,028 maunds on the returns of 1884-85. The exports to Assam fell off from 2,04,176 maunds in 1885-86 to 1,50,745 maunds in 1886-87, owing chiefly to smaller quantities having been shipped from Serajgunge which contributed only 8,775 maunds, against 54,652 maunds in the other year.

11. Rice.—The rice trade, exports and imports, fell off by 1,04,625 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and by 67,460 maunds as compared with 1884-85. The decrease in the internal trade of Bengal amounted to 49,412 maunds, chiefly in the imports to Calcutta from Naraingunge, the figures being nothing in 1886-87, and 40,148 maunds in 1885-86. In the supplies carried to Assam from Bengal, there was a decrease of 45,345 maunds as shown below :—

	To Assam.
	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Mds.	Mds
From Goalundo	1,85,206	1,96,928
„ Serajgunge	89,732	70,977
„ Calcutta	58,200	31,908
„ Kaligunge in Rungpore	49,500	37,380
„ Dacca	......	100
Total ...	3,82,638	3,37,293

The balance of the decrease shown above to be still accounted for is 9,878 maunds, which quantity represents the difference in the supply of rice imported into Bengal from Assam, which shipped only 1,881 maunds to Calcutta and Goalundo, against 11,759 maunds in 1885-86.

12. Hides.—The increase shown during 1885-86 was not maintained during the year under report, the total quantity registered being 21,704 pieces, against 152,237 pieces and 20,321 pieces during 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The decrease occurred entirely in the internal trade of Bengal, the supplies sent to Calcutta being nil during 1886-87, against 135,574 pieces received from Naraingunge and Goalundo in 1885-86. Last year the Dacca services of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, however, carried a very large quantity of hides to Calcutta from Naraingunge, and this apparently accounts for the heavy decrease in the returns of the River Steamer Companies. The exports from Assam during the last year amounted to 21,704 pieces, against 16,463 pieces in 1885-86.

13. Liquors.—A decrease of Rs. 95,806 or 7·57 per cent. occurred in the value of liquors registered during the past year as compared with 1885-86, but the figures were in excess of the trade of 1884-85 by Rs. 72,414 or 6·60 per cent. The falling off was mainly in the exports to Assam from Calcutta, which amounted in value to Rs. 10,67,998 during the past year, against Rs 12,44,317 in 1885 86. On the other hand, there was an increase of Rs 70,210 worth in the quantities sent from Calcutta, which supplied Rs. 79,637 worth to Dacca against nil in 1885-86, Rs. 1,004 worth to Serajgunge against Rs. 7,885 worth in 1885-86, and nil to Goalundo against Rs. 2,546 worth in 1885-86.

14. Provisions.—The trade under this head is steadily increasing, the total quantity registered during the past year being 6,883 maunds above the trade of 1885-86, and 25,635 maunds over that of 1884-85. The exports to Assam rose from 52,724 maunds to 58,064 maunds in 1886-87. Of this latter quantity, Calcutta contributed 47,883 maunds, against 45,660 maunds in 1885-86, Goalundo 9,735 maunds against 6,445 maunds, and other districts 446 maunds against 689 maunds in the preceding year.

15. Mustard seed.—The total trade in mustard seed amounted during the past year to 2,68,358 maunds showing a heavy decrease of 4,15,714 maunds on the total of 1885-86, and of 3,81,178 maunds on that of 1884-85. In the internal trade of Bengal, the figures fell off from 2,32,265 maunds in 1885-86 to 45,226 maunds in 1886-87, the decrease being most marked in the consignments to Calcutta from Serajgunge (35,630 maunds against 1,43,193 maunds) and Dacca (9,196 maunds against 77,390 maunds). There was also a considerable falling off in the trade of Bengal with Assam which exported during the past year only 2,23,132 maunds, against 4,51,807 maunds in 1885-86, the imports into Calcutta from this source being 2,19,200 maunds, against 4,46,117 maunds in the previous year. The area sown in Assam last year was less than in the previous year, and the crop was a smaller one than usual, owing to the excessive rains of September and October 1886.

16. Treasure.—Transactions under this head during the past year were limited to Rs. 3,87,450 against Rs. 17,43,860 in 1885-86 and Rs. 6,30,054 in 1884-85. Last year, the export to Assam from Bengal amounted to Rs. 3,80,450, against Rs. 9,20,300 in the preceding year. In 1885-86 the amount of treasure carried to Rungpore and Dacca was Rs. 3,99,560, but in the year under report no such remittances were made. On the other hand, the imports into Calcutta from Backergunge were nil against Rs. 4,00,000 in 1885-86, while Dacca sent to Calcutta Rs. 7,000 against Rs. 24,000 in 1885-86.

TRAFFIC ON THE BRAHMAPUTRA AND MEGNA RIVERS CARRIED BY THE STEAMERS OF THE EASTERN BENGAL STATE RAILWAY.

17. The total quantity and value of merchandise carried by the steamer services of the Eastern Bengal State Railway during the past three years, were as follows:—

The advance in the total quantity registered during the past year was 34·80 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and 46·28 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The increase occurred mainly in the dowuward trade which rose by 6,64,243 maunds and 9,76,841 maunds, when comparison is made with the returns of 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively; while in the upward trade, the figures indicate an increase of 2,19,059 maunds and 1,05,649 maunds, respectively; of the entire traffic 80·66 per cent was carried to and from Calcutta.

18. In the down trade, the items which contributed most largely to the increase in the traffic of the year as compared with that of 1885-86 were gunny-bags(7,86,780 in number), hides(362,620 in number), jute raw(2,72,009 maunds), drugs and medicines not intoxicating (1,96,560 in value), skins of sheep (99,650 in number) and tea Indian (22,801 maunds). The articles which showed a marked decrease were rice husked (86,390 maunds), mustard seed (68,160 maunds), cotton raw (9,080 maunds), tilseed (1,801 maunds) and other kinds of provisions (707 maunds). As regards the up traffic the largest increase was in European piece-goods (Rs. 32,38,923), liquors (Rs. 61,890), salt (60,334 maunds), leather manufactured (Rs. 32,180), hides (24,300 pieces), European twist (13,520 maunds) and Indian piece-goods (Rs. 15,920), and the largest decrease was in gunny-bags (42,060 in number).

19. Dacca service.—The total weight of goods carried by this service showed an advance of 71·56 per cent. as compared with the trade of the previous year, and of 52·71 per cent. as compared with that of 1884-85. The increase was largest in the down traffic, which amounted to nearly 15½ lakhs of maunds, against 9¼ lakhs of maunds in the preceding year. The following statement shows all the principal articles of traffic carried during the past three years:—

26. The total weight of goods registered during the past year was 61,59,982 maunds, being 19·65 per cent. below that of the preceding year, and 13·74 per cent. less than that of 1884-85. There was a very large decrease of 37·77 per cent. in the import traffic of 1886-87, as compared with 1885-86, due mainly to the injuries to crops in Sylhet consequent on the floods of 1886, which resulted in scarcity and a rise in prices, but the exports showed an advance of 49·80 per cent The greatest decrease under the former head took place in the trade with the Chittagong Division, the imports to which fell off from 31,38,963 maunds to 12,45,887 maunds; in the exports, however, the figures rose by 5,42,140 maunds.

27. The figures for the chief commodities carried each way during the past year are compared with the figures of the previous year in the following statement:—

28. It will be seen that the most noticeable fluctuations in the import trade consisted of an advance under oranges, shell-lac, mats, mustard seed, tea, and bamboos, and a decrease under lime and limestone, raw cotton, rice, paddy, linseed, and timber. In the export trade, the articles which showed a marked increase over the trade of the previous year, were piece-goods, both European and Indian, rice, oils, and salt, and the only items which showed a considerable decrease were earthenware and porcelain, gunnies, potatoes, and undrained sugar. These fluctuations are noticed below.

29. Imports from Assam.—Compared with 1885-86 the traffic in lime which comes from the Surma valley, decreased by 1,67,390 maunds. The imports into the Chittagong division alone showed a falling off of 1,44,770 maunds. Under Calcutta a decrease is shown of 73,820 maunds, against an increase of 19,990 maunds under Northern Bengal, and 25,426 maunds under Eastern Bengal. The total imports of raw cotton aggregated 19,470 maunds, against 30,348 maunds in the previous year. The chief falling off occurred in the imports into Eastern Bengal which received 9,764 maunds against 17,802 maunds in 1885-86. In the report on the river-borne trade of the province of Assam for the year 1885 86, it is stated that "a large quantity of the cotton grown in the Garo hills is shipped from places in Bengal below Dhubri, and thus escapes registration in Assam." Oranges form an important article of export from Sylhet. In the Assam returns 430 oranges are said to weigh a maund; at this rate, the total quantity of the year's traffic amounted to 93,267 maunds, against 85,740 maunds in 1885-86. About half these oranges go to Calcutta which received 48,681 maunds, or 7,344 maunds more than in the previous year; the Chittagong division imported 27,141 maunds against 31,326 maunds, and Eastern Bengal 16,445 maunds against 10,679 mauuds in the other year, while the imports into Northern Bengal fell off from 1,944 maunds to 605 maunds. Owing to the unusual floods of 1886 in Sylhet the imports of rice from the Surma valley amounted to only 105 maunds against 41,145 maunds in 1885-86, while in the case of paddy, the figures declined from 26,46,946 maunds to 4,88,045 maunds. The Chittagong Division, which imported 22,24,958 maunds of paddy in 1885-86, received only 4,57,101 maunds during the year under report; the decrease in the quantities carried to Northern Bengal amounted to 2,80,604 maunds and to Eastern Bengal 1,37,539 maunds. The shell-lac trade increased from 1,480 maunds to 6,285 maunds. The consigments for Calcutta rose by 3,444 maunds and those for the Chittagong division by 1,285 maunds. The total value of mats imported was Rs. 1,39,518 against Rs. 93,454. The largest increase occurred in the supplies carried to the Chittagong division which imported Rs. 1,01,562 worth against Rs. 69,130 worth in 1885-86. The value of the supplies sent to Northern Bengal exceeded that of the previous year by Rs. 5,519. Under linseed, the figures showed a falling off of 10,625 maunds chiefly in the imports into Calcutta. The traffic in mustard seed showed an increase of 86,321 maunds. The imports into Northern Bengal amounted to 2,21,113 maunds against 1,97,868 maunds in 1885-86, and the quantity sent to Calcutta rose from 70,933 maunds to 1,33,006 maunds, while that carried to Eastern Bengal showed a decrease of 10,960 maunds, against an increase of 11,964 maunds in the shipments for the Chittagong division. In 1885-86 only 1,350 maunds of tea were sent to the Chittagong division, but in the year under report 4,533 maunds went to Chittagong and 5,030 maunds to Calcutta. The trade in timber on the whole increased by 5,390 logs; 24,571 more logs went to Northern Bengal, but Eastern Bengal showed a falling off of 10,924 logs, and to Chittagong of 8,257 logs. The traffic in bamboos showed a large increase of 252,000 in number. This trade was entirely with the Chittagong division.

30. Exports to Assam.—The quantity of European piece goods exported to Assam was valued at Rs. 5,62,400 against Rs. 3,45,400 in the previous year, the increase in the supplies from the Chittagong division amounted to Rs. 1,64,550, and that from Calcutta to Rs. 50,550. In Indian piece-goods, there was a rise in value of Rs. 1,68,520. This trade was chiefly with the Chittagong division which supplied Rs. 2,65,000 worth of goods against Rs. 96,840 worth in 1885-86.

Earthern-ware and porcelain.

Under earthen-ware and porcelain, the consignments from the Chittagong division were valued at Rs. 20,897 against Rs. 36,107 in the preceding year.

Gunny bags.

As regards gunnies, the decrease of 26,570 bags in the total exports as compared with 1885-86, occurred chiefly in the consignments from Calcutta, the exports from which amounted to only 4,250 bags against 27,460 bags in the previous year.

Potatoes.

The exports of potatoes aggregated 7,360 maunds showing a decrease of 13,170 maunds. The contribution from Northern Bengal was only 5,540 maunds, against 13,852 maunds, and that from the Chittagong division 1,740 maunds against 6,008 maunds in 1885-86.

Rice.

The rice trade received a great stimulus during 1886-87 in consequence of the scarcity in the Sylhet district. The total quantity exported from Bengal was 3,59,468 maunds against 81,710 maunds in 1885-86. The largest supply (2,29,446 maunds against 22,681 maunds) went from the Chittagong division; the quantity carried from Eastern Bengal rose from 4,912 maunds to 78,859 maunds, but the shipments from Northern Bengal fell off from 53,601 maunds in 1885-86 to 48,528 maunds in 1886-87.

Oils.

There was a very considerable increase in the exportation of oils, of which 2,28,122 maunds were registered during the past year, against 1,70,360 maunds in 1885-86; the consigments from Calcutta increased by 24,452 maunds, those from the Chittagong division by 22,425 maunds, those from Eastern Bengal by 5,946 maunds, and those from Northern Bengal by 4,309 maunds as compared with the preceding year.

Salt.

In the export salt trade, the figures exhibit an increase of 10,112 maunds. The shipments from Calcutta rose from 2,17,971 maunds to 2,60,460 maunds, but in all other cases the figures showed a decrease, namely, 9,941 maunds under the Chittagong division, 21,034 maunds under Northern Bengal, and 1,402 maunds under Eastern Bengal.

Undrained sugar.

The decrease of 19,816 maunds under undrained sugar was owing to shorter despatches of the article from Northern and Eastern Bengal, which contributed 13,907 maunds and 8,961 maunds, respectively, less than in 1885-86.

2. It will be seen that the total quantity of the import and export trade has increased by 7·32 per cent. on the figures for 1885-86, and by 12·03 per cent. in comparison with those for 1884-85. There has been an advance both in imports and exports, the former having risen by 8·42 per cent., and the latter by 3·34 per cent., on the trade of 1885-86. The supply conveyed by country boats during 1886-87 was 34·73 per cent. of the total trade, against 36·88 per cent. in the previous year, and that attracted to the railways was 53·15 per cent. against 50·07 per cent., of which the share of the East Indian Railway was 42·13 per cent. against 39·09 per cent., and of the Eastern Bengal State Railway 11·02 per cent. against 7·56 per cent.; while the proportion of the road traffic to the total trade amounted to 6·39 per cent. against 7·64 per cent., and that of the traffic carried by river steamers to 5·73 per cent., against 5·41 per cent. in the previous year.

3. The total value of the trade of Calcutta, however, has fallen in spite of the increased quantities of goods carried. This is due to the fall in prices of nearly all important agricultural staples which has been shewn on page 8 of this report.

4. The causes, both external to these provinces and internal, which mainly influenced the trade of Calcutta during the past year are briefly stated below :—

Causes, external to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(1). The cotton crop in the Upper Provinces was larger than in the previous year, and the exports from Calcutta of raw cotton by sea to foreign countries were the highest shown since 1881-82. Last year there was an enormous production of cotton goods in the United Kingdom, and the supply of the raw material carried to that country from Calcutta was 67¾ per cent. over the figures of the previous year.

(2). The outturn of indigo in Benares was smaller last year than in the previous year, and its quality was slightly inferior. In the Doab the yield was larger than in the year before. On the other hand, Java indigo seriously interfered with the prices of Indian indigo.

(3). The wheat crop in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and the Punjab was good; on the other hand, the harvest in England was a poor one, and crops having been short in Russia and Australasia, exports from India were stimulated.

(5). The linseed crop in Russia is said to have been a small one, and exports from India were therefore stimulated except in the case of the trade with the United States, where there has been larger production of linseed in late years.

(6). The depressed condition of the home market in rape seed tended to the contraction of the exports under this head. In the North-Western Provinces the crop was better than in the previous year. In Assam, however, the area sown was less, and the crop was a smaller one than usual.

(7). There was an improved demand in Europe for silk owing to the fact that a change in fashion has occurred, and pure silk manufactures are in greater demand.

(8). The production of beet-root sugar on the continent of Europe continued on an extensive scale, but the extremely low prices for this article in the European markets caused growers to look out for other markets in which to sell the produce, and probably this is one reason for the large imports of this staple into Calcutta during the past year.

(9). With low prices in the United Kingdom for Indian tea there was a large increase in consumption at the expense of China tea. The outturn of Ceylon is yearly becoming more important.

Causes, internal to the Lower Provinces, which affected the trade of the year.

(4). The jute crop was slightly larger than in the previous year. Owing, however, to the rising of the rivers, inundations occurred which caused deterioration in the quality of jute.

(5). The long period of depression caused by the over production of gunnies in the local mills passed away to some extent. The large local demand for this article, consequent on the increased shipments of wheat and linseed, has probably had some effect in giving a more healthy tone to the market, and has no doubt assisted in placing prices on a higher level.

(7). The outturn of mustard seed was on the whole below the average, and there was not much demand for export by sea.

(8). The manufacture of saltpetre in Behar was restricted owing to floods, but the Calcutta market was generally steady and firm throughout the year.

(9). The sugarcane crop was good throughout these provinces.

(10). There was an enormous increase in the outturn of Indian tea during the past year, but it has been too much for the market to carry off at profitable rates to growers, and the result has been that prices have been lower than ever known before.

(11). The tobacco crop was good in Behar, but it was below the average in Northern Bengal, where the plants were partially destroyed by hail-storm.

(12). As the result of the plentiful markets during the past two years, large quantities of European cotton piece-goods passed into consumption during the past year. The imports of these goods in 1886-87 were the highest yet reached, even exceeding that year of large importations, 1880-81.

5. Besides the causes mentioned above, there were two more disturbing elements in connection with the trade of the past year, namely, the low rates of exchange and the low rates of freight. Both these causes tended to stimulate exports to European countries, but any upward tendency in these rates had the effect of checking business until prices had been re-adjusted. Such articles as wheat, jute, linseed, were especially affected by these fluctuations. Owing to these fluctuations also up-county dealers have hesitated in entering into large transactions in imported goods, such as cotton and woollen piece-goods.

6. In the reports for the two previous years, it was explained that the value of the entire rail-borne trade could not be given, as no value could be assigned with any degree of accuracy for goods registered under the heading "All other articles of merchandise." As stated in paragraph 11 Chapter I of this report, a value rate of Rs. 5 per maund for "manufactured" and Rs. 2 per maund for "unmanufactured" goods coming under this head has now been prescribed. From none of the railways have separate statistics for the two classes of goods been received, and therefore the past year's trade in "all other articles of merchandise" has been valued at the average rate of Rs. 3-8 per maund. The trade under this head during the two previous years has also been calculated at this rate to admit of comparison being made, in the statement given above, between the value of the total trade carried during the past three years.

COTTON, RAW.

7. The gross import and export traffic of Calcutta in raw cotton during the past three years, were as follows:—

Total ...	8,04,529	9,80,125	15,53,609	4,46,435	6,11,421	10,96,589

The increase in the imports was chiefly on account of larger despatches from the Upper Provinces, where the cotton crop was larger than in the previous year. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes that "prices were fairly regular throughout the year, there having been no very violent fluctuations. The continued low rates of exchange would again conduce to keep up prices as in the previous year."

8. The import trade showed a considerable increase of 58·51 per cent. and 93·11 per cent. as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The imports by sea exhibited a falling off of 10,834 maunds as compared with 1885-86, but the supplies attracted to the East Indian Railway showed an enormous advance of 6,09,658 maunds. The different provinces which contributed to the trade during the past three years, were as follows :—

	1884-85. Mds.	1885-86. Mds.	1886-87. Mds.
From the North Western Provinces and Oudh	4,10,457	5,66,578	11,19,904

„ Other places	9,596	13,167	17,778
Total ...	8,01,529	9,80,125	15,53,609

The increase in the supplies received from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, which were nearly double the figures of 1885-86, was due to a good crop in those provinces and to an active demand in Calcutta for export by sea. The greatest improvement was in the consignments from Agra, viz., 2,57,447 maunds, Bullandshahr 1,22,572 maunds, Allyghur 84,177 maunds, Etawah 54,982 maunds, and Cawnpore 42,352 maunds. As regards the Punjab, the increase of 26,484 maunds was owing to larger despatches from Delhi, which rose by 27,040 maunds.

Principal Railway Stations.

9. The following are the principal railway stations which exported raw cotton to Calcutta, during the past three years :—

The steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 9,704 maunds of raw cotton to Calcutta from Naraingunge, against 11,550 maunds in 1885-86.

Imports by sea.

10. The imports by sea during the past year, comprised 1,53,608 maunds despatched from Bombay, against 1,83,430 maunds in 1885-86, 11,982 maunds against 4,058 maunds from Burmah, 5,597 maunds against 8,065 maunds from Chittagong, 22,292 maunds against 9,325 maunds from Madras, and 747 maunds against 182 maunds from other places.

Exports.

11. In the export trade there was an increase of 79·35 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 145·63 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The total exportation by sea during those years, is shown below :—

Regarding the fluctuations in the trade with foreign countries, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes :—

"In comparison with 1885-86 the exports of raw cotton advanced during the past year by 85 per cent. and the figures are the highest shown in the table. There were increases in shipments to the United Kingdom, Austria, France, Italy, Belgium, and Germany against a decrease to China.

"To the United Kingdom the increase was 67¾ per cent. There was an enormous production of cotton goods in the United Kingdom during the past year which would necessitate large supplies of cotton and would cause larger shipments from India, but the main reason for the increased exports was no doubt the larger crop. There were also larger exports from Bombay notwithstanding the fact that the crop of American cotton was in a higher scale with larger imports into the United Kindom.

"The exports to Austria show a further advance during the past year reaching the highest figures tabulated, but they were not up to shipments of 1881-82. The advantages of direct communication have no doubt been further availed of and with the larger crop would produce the advance shown. The same remarks will also apply to the exports to France and Italy, the advances to these countries being respectively 150¾ and 71¾ per cent To Belgium the shipments have made a great advance and were five times the quantity of the previous year"

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

12. The quantity of raw cotton not exported before the close of the year was 4,57,020 maunds, against 3,68,704 maunds in 1885-86, and 3,58,094 maunds in 1884-85.

COTTON TWIST AND YARN.

Imports.

European twist and yarn.

14. The imports by sea represent the total clearances of European cotton twist and yarn from ship board and from bond for consumption. The different ports which contributed to the trade during those years, were as follows :—

15. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, offers the following explanation of the increase in this trade:—

"The total importations of all kinds of yarn show an increase entirely owing to the large receipts of Turkey red yarn, which advanced by over 2½ million pounds. Grey and white yarn declined by over ¾ million pounds, while other colours were on about the same level as in the previous year. The decline in grey and white yarns appears principally in 40s, amounting to over ½ million pounds. This count is the principal quality imported, being nearly three-fourths of the total importations. There is said to have been a small demand for yarn for up-country consumption, and there were large accumulations of stock of 40s. which checked the flow of business and caused spindles that had generally been employed in producing the yarn for Indian consumption to be directed to the production of yarn for other markets. Stocks of 40s., however, show no accumulations over the previous years, being, at the close of 1886, 1,815 bales against 2,426 bales at the end of 1885. The finer descriptions of yarn have also declined in every count except 70s., in which there was a small increase. Stocks of these yarns held by importers also show a decline compared with the previous year's figures."

16. The total importation of Indian twist and yarn showed an increase of 11,696 maunds when compared with 1885-86, and of 7,259 maunds on the returns of 1884-85. The chief port of supply was Bombay. The Collector of Calcutta observes as follows regarding the trade of that port:—

Indian twist and yarn.

"There was an increase of 4 per cent. in the importations of cotton twist of Indian manufacture during the past year in comparison with 1885-86, and the figures are the highest shown in the table.

"With the exception of a few trifling importations, the whole of the twist came from Bombay, and consisted as usual of the low counts of yarn. The Lancashire competition in this trade has practically ceased, for the importations from the United Kingdom of counts below 24s. were only 101,068lbs, a mere fraction of the receipts from Bombay. Prices have apparently been lower than in the previous year as the total declared value is smaller, although the quantity imported was larger. This trade is entirely in the hands of native merchants, Europeans apparently not being able to compete with them.

"The exports of local manufactured twist to China (Hong-Kong) and Japan have further developed during the year, the figures for the past two years being—

1885-86.	1886-87.
lbs.	lbs.
669,800	1,475,900

"It is a curious circumstance that with large importations of cotton twist there should at the same time be considerable exports of very similar goods."

17. The quantities imported by country boats comprised for the most part the produce of the cotton mills in the neighbourhood of Calcutta; the figures for the past three years have remained almost the same. The different marts which contributed to the trade were—

18. The quantity of cotton worked up during the past year in the four* steam cotton mills in the district of the 24-Pergunnahs in the Presidency Division, was 2,26,802 maunds valued at Rs. 51,83,260, against 1,94,525 maunds valued at Rs. 48,67,672 in 1885-86, and 2,17,188 maunds valued at Rs. 54,.0,450 in 1884-85. In the Burdwan Division there are two steam mills at Ghoosery and Bowreah in the Howrah District. The quantity and value of the outturn of both mills were 90,495 maunds valued at Rs. 29,51,678 in 1884-85; 1,20,011 maunds valued at Rs. 27,27,564 in 1885-86; and 1,29,227 maunds valued at Rs. 30,23,650 in 1886-87.

19. The supply of twist and yarn imported by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed an increase of 120·25 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, but a decrease of 3·80 per cent. on those of 1884-85. The bulk of the imports were derived from Shamnagore, where the Dunbar Cotton Mill is situated.

In his General Administration Report for 1886-87 the Commissioner of the Presidency Division makes the following extract from a letter from the agent of the Dunbar Cotton Mill:—

"The commencement of the year 1886-87 found yarn prices gradually declining from the highest point that had been reached for two years. The previous rains, bad trade, and accumulation of stocks, had caused the local mills largely to reduce their outturn. The result had been soon felt by the diminution of stocks and consequent rise in prices. This was the signal for the mills to resume their endeavours to produce the largest possible outturn, which immediately tended to lower prices.

"The Bengal crop of 1885, which had at first shown considerable promise, fell off rapidly in quality, and shippers took the cream of the crop. The scarcity and poor quality of the Bengal crop was partly compensated for by a plentiful supply of moderately priced Bombays.

"During June and July yarn continued dull and cotton advanced in price. In August some enquiry came from China and led to little business, and locally, though prices were distinctly lower, yarn began to move freely off the market. Towards the end of the rains, holders of cotton, influenced by the nearness of the new crop, became anxious to sell and prices of cotton began rapidly to decline until the new crop, which was plentiful and of fair quality, entered the market.

"Yarn prices meanwhile declined, but not in proportion to Bengal cotton, and during the four months of the cold season the mills secured a good margin in the lower counts of yarn, towards the manufacture of which local enterprize is being more and more confined owing to the competition of Bombay in the finer sorts. This tendency has lately been further confirmed by the poor quality of the Bombay crop of the last season, of which only the residue at high prices was available for mills on this side. With the approach of the hot weather the demand for yarn slackened off, and when the yarn year ended the market was very dull; but with cheap cotton and no large stocks of unsold yarn, the trade remained in a good and sound position, with some signs, however of a glut in the bazar of course counts, due to the largely increased production.

"The main features of the past year have been a steady fall in prices all round, a fair demand at the decline in prices for yarn, an increased production from the mills, with a gradual transference of spindles from higher to lower counts.

"Towards the end of the year some trade was done with Burmah, but on the whole this outlet gave little help, and the results of the past year appear the more satisfactory when this fact is taken into consideration.

"China has given little help, the demand being confined to fine counts.

"No large extension of the trade has been made in Calcutta during the last year, but the projection of five new mills in Bombay and three in other parts of the country point to a continually increasing competition which will be severely felt unless markets can be further opened up.

"Exchange is being more and more felt as a disturbing element in the trade, for though both the raw cotton is bought and the finished article is sold under one currency, the large takings of continental and English spinners are influenced by exchange and reach on the local market, causing violent fluctuations in prices on cotton."

The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division reports that "the cotton mills at Ghoosery and Bowreah did good business during the year and that the trade is in a healthy state.

20. The fluctuations in the imports by road were very slight. The supply brought by this route comprises part of the outturn of the mills in and around Calcutta.

EXPORTS.

European twist and yarn.

21. The total quantity of twist and yarn of European manufacture exported from Calcutta during the past year, showed an advance of 4·08 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 14·92 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The exports by internal routes increased by 10·58 per cent. in comparison with the previous year, while the sea-borne trade exhibited a decrease of 10·19 per cent. The details of this traffic are given in the following statements:—

Cotton cloths are manufactured in all parts of the Midnapore district, especially at Chundrakonah, which is famous for its fabrics throughout Lower Bengal. In the Ghattal Sub-division, a large number of persons follow the profession of weaving cotton cloths, irrespective of caste or creed, but the manufacture of these articles is gradually declining, as the weavers cannot sell their products as cheaply as those imported from Europe. The other districts which imported large quantities of twist and yarn were Nuddea, (19,296 maunds against 16,922 maunds), Dacca (18,973 maunds against 19,082 maunds), Furreedpore (12,282 maunds against 7,211 maunds), Hooghly (9,321 maunds against 8,993 maunds), and Jessore (8,542 maunds against 6,983 maunds).

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks on the condition of this trade during the past official year :—

"There was an advance in the exports under this head during the past year as compared with 1885-86, but the figures are still much below the average. The exports to Burma are the cause of the increase shown as they were in advance of the previous year's shipments by quarter of a million pounds The decline under "other ports" is owing to a fall in the exports to Chandbally."

Comparison of imports with exports.

27. The total quantity of twist and yarn imported into Calcutta was 28,361 maunds below that exported during the year, against a similar deficit of 25,956 maunds in 1885-86; but in 1884-85 there was a surplus of imports over exports amounting to 31,352 maunds.

COTTON PIECE-GOODS.

Imports.

29. Last year the total value of European piece-goods cleared for consumption from ship-board and from bond, showed an increase of 23·69 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 21·77 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The different places which contributed to this supply, are shown in the following statement:—

30. The increase in the imports from the United Kingdom amounted to 23·68 per cent. as compared with the previous year. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The past year has been a fairly good one in Lancashire for cotton piece-goods manufacturers. With a large crop of American cotton amounting to 6,500,000 bales the price of cotton has been kept low, and there were no violent fluctuations. Owing to rumours at the beginning of the year of a very large crop of cotton with the probability of lower prices, spinners sold very freely to manufacturers. These anticipations were not realised, and the rise in the price of cotton caused serious loss to the speculators. On the other hand, manufacturers being then supplied with yarns at low prices and supported by the enormous demand from India, have had generally a very good year and have made profits. The trade also was not seriously interfered with by strikes as was the case in the previous year; and although at one time business suffered a temporary depression owing to the disturbed state of politics on the continent of Europe, the results generally of the year in Lancashire have been unsatisfactory to spinners and satisfactory to manufacturers.

"In Calcutta the special feature has been the enormous importations of all kinds of piece-goods, the highest yet reached, even exceeding that year of large importations, 1880-81 In grey piece-goods the trade, so far as the price in rupees is concerned, has been a fairly go one for the values realised generally showed good results to merchants when they had been able to cover their exchange. This has again been a source of loss to importers. When goods had been sold at what appeared to be profitable rates before exchange could be covered, it fell heavily, often converting this profit into a loss. This trade is now worked so finely that a fall in exchange of one per cent. often makes the difference between a profit and a loss. The fluctuations in exchange during the past year have been large, and besides being a cause of loss, have seriously interfered with business. Dealers who had bought goods, on a basis of exchange at 1*s*. 6*d*., were reluctant to raise their offers when it gradually fell to 1*s*. 4*d*., and those who had bought on the basis of the latter rate were of course in a worse position when exchange gradually rose. There was thus introduced an element of uncertainty in the trade, which caused dealers to hesitate in entering into large transactions. In white piece-goods there was a good trade at the beginning of the year, but prices afterwards fell and losses must have been suffered. In printed piece-goods the year has been a bad one. The prospects were at the time of the preparation of these goods apparently very favourable, and large contracts were entered into; but the enormous supplies and the paucity of the up-country demand caused a complete collapse in prices at about the middle of the season. Stocks held by importers are excessive: estimated by some people to be almost equal to a year's supply, and losses on these stocks will be heavy. Dealers, in view of these large stocks, are now very chary in entertaining new contracts. In dhooties the trade has been fairly remunerative to the bazar dealers, but not so satisfactory to importers, as the exchange question interfered with their results.

"One feature in connection with the trade in cotton goods which is worthy of notice is the increase of direct importations by native houses of business. A number of years ago, with a few exceptions, the whole of the cotton piece-goods trade was in the hands of European firms only; but of recent years there has sprung up a direct trade between Manchester and Calcutta, and a large amount of business is now carried on in this way. There is no doubt that natives can work their business in Calcutta more cheaply than Europeans can, and from this it might be supposed that ultimately a very large proportion of the trade would fall into native hands. But I do not think this will be the case, as there are disadvantages connected with this system. They are far away from their suppliers, and when disputes arise, as they generally do, especially in a bad and unprofitable market, there must be difficulties in settling them. Then they have not the same choice of selection of goods as a firm having a house in the place where the goods are produced; and agents, however trustworthy, cannot be expected to look after the interests of their constituents as a merchant will look after his own. The movement, however, is noticeable, and it will be interesting to see if it is capable of further development.

"It has generally been supposed, and the average importations support the theory, that 70 millions of yards of plain cotton were as much as this market could take off; but the past year's importations were over 83 millions of yards, and the market did not feel this to be any special burden. The opening of communications with the remoter districts of the country owing to the extension of railways would no doubt operate in producing a larger trade in cotton goods, and besides this there is no doubt that the country generally is in a most prosperous condition, there having been no famines for a considerable period."

31. The total increase in the export trade was 10·14 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and 3·33 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The largest increase occurred in the quantities exported by rail. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the figures advanced by 7·51 per cent. in comparison with the previous year, while the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed an increase of 24·55 per cent. The following statement shows in detail the different provinces to which piece-goods were exported from Calcutta, during the past three years:—

32. If 25 per cent. be added to the imports by sea on account of under statement of values, insurance, landing charges, &c., &c., the total value of the past year's traffic would amount to Rs. 16,70,79,319. Out of this amount, the value of piece-goods exported during the year was Rs. 14,23,21,210 as shown above. The value of the surplus of imports over exports therefore amounted to Rs. 2,47,58,109, against Rs. 58,85,540 worth in 1885-86. These figures show a considerable accumulation of stocks in Calcutta on the 1st April 1887 as was noticed in the Customs Report.

Comparison of imports with exports.

33. The estimated values of piece-goods sent to the different divisions of Bengal Proper from Calcutta during the past three years, were as follows :—

TRADE OF BENGAL PROPER.

Imports.

To	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Total ...	4,68,88,043	4,17,61,233	4,88,92,538

In addition to the above supply, the imports into Bengal Proper by rail, and into Chittagong from foreign and Indian ports other than Calcutta, were :—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Imports into Bengal by rail	4,176	4,284	6,489
Imports into Chittagong from foreign and Indian ports other than Calcutta ...	12,864	5,268	7,354
Total ...	17,040	9,552	13,843

The grand total of the imports, therefore, amounted to Rs. 4,89,06,381, against Rs. 4,17,70,785 in 1885-86, and Rs. 4,69,05,083 in 1884-85.

34. The total value of piece-goods exported from Bengal Proper by rail and by road during the past three years, was as follows :—

Exports.

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Total ...	5,56,626	4,97,259	4,09,791

35. If exports are deducted from imports, the value of piece-goods left for consumption in Bengal is Rs. 4,84,96,590 during the past year. This, among a population of 40,419,594 souls, would give an average rate of Rs. 1-3-2 per head, against Rs. 1-0-4 in 1885-86, and Rs. 1-2-4 in 1884-85.

Comparison of imports with exports.

36. The value of piece-goods despatched from Calcutta to the Behar Province, division by division, during the past three years, was as follows :—

TRADE OF BEHAR.

Imports.

To	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Total	3,44,47,604	3,33,47,910	3,78,60,405

The value of piece-goods carried by rail to Behar from places other than Calcutta during those years, was :—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

„ Bombay	84,096	61,740	72,891
Total ...	1,33,560	1,42,191	1,84,086

The total registered imports into Behar, therefore, amounted to Rs. 3,80,44,491, against Rs. 3,34,90,101 in 1885-86, and Rs. 3,45,81,164 in 1884-85.

Exports.

37. The value of piece-goods exported from Behar by rail and by road during the past three years, was as follows :—

		1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Total	...	14,73,199	13,25,388	16,05,269

Comparison of imports with exports.

38. The result of the year's traffic was a surplus of imports over exports to the extent of Rs. 3,64,39,222, which gives an average yearly local consumption of Rs. 1-9-3 per head of a population of 23,127,104 souls, against Rs. 1-6-3 in 1885-86, and Rs 1-6-11 in 1884-85.

Trade of Orissa.

39. The importation of piece-goods into the Orissa Division during the past three years, was as follows :—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
From Calcutta	16,80,029	17,90,815	13,27,566
„ Other Indian ports	.....	......	4,650
Total	16,80,029	17,90,815	13,32,216

40. The quantity exported from the province during the past year is valued at Rs. 1,050, and the balance amounting to Rs. 13,31,166 would give a rate of annas four and pie one per head on a population of 5,199,877 souls. In 1885-86, the rate per head was annas 5 and pies 6, and in 1884-85 annas 4 and pies 10.

Trade of Calcutta with Assam.

41. The total value of piece-goods imported into Assam from Calcutta was Rs. 44,30,245, against Rs. 52,88,525 in 1885-86, and Rs. 66,81,457 in 1884-85.

Descriptions of piece-goods imported into Calcutta.

43. The quantity of the principal descriptions of European piece-goods imported from foreign ports into Calcutta during the past three years, is shown in the following statement:—

	Percentages.
	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87
Grey—

All other sorts of piece-goods	22·0	24·4	24·7
Total ...	100	100	100

44. The fluctuations of trade in each of the above descriptions of piece-goods are thus explained by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta:—

"In grey cotton piece-goods the increase over the previous year was nearly 163 millions of yards. All the principal descriptions share in this advance. Shirtings have increased by about 70 millions, jaconets by over 11 millions, madapollams by 2½ millions, T. cloths by 2¼ millions, drills, by nearly ½ million, scarves and chudders by 2¼ millions, and dhooties, the most of all, by nearly 74 millions of yards. The increase in the trade in dhooties is most noticeable, the year's importations being far in advance of any other year. With these large importations, as might have been expected, there have been some accumulations of stocks, the increased quantities held by importers at the close of 1886 over 1885 being shirtings 326,791 pieces, madapollams 36,702 pieces, T. cloths domestics and sheetings 58,714 pieces, drills 15,123 pieces, jaconets 144,582 pieces. and dhooties 2,343,108 pairs. These increases in stocks appear large, but I am informed that a large portion of these goods were really sold, but had not been taken delivery of by the dealers.

"In white cotton piece-goods the advance in importations is principally due to large receipts of jaconets, mulls and shirtings, the increase being 16½ millions, 21¼ millions and 18¼ millions of yards respectively. Dhooties also show an advance of 1¼ million, and scarves and chudders 6 millions of yards. There have also been some accumulations of stocks of white cotton piece-goods, principally observable in jaconets and mulls."

45. The abstract below shows the proportion in which it has been estimated by the district officers that the different classes of European piece-goods were imported into some of the Bengal districts, during the year under report :—

50. There are six cotton mills in Bengal, which manufacture yarn, but in none of them were piece-goods manufactured during the year. For hand-made goods, Howrah is the chief emporium. Large quantities are sent there for sale from the Hooghly, Burdwan, Midnapore, Pubna, Nuddea, and the 24-Pergunnahs districts. The value of the country cloth sold at the Howrah hât last year is estimated at Rs. 18,00,000. The following extracts regarding the hand weaving industry in the lower provinces are taken from the General Administration Reports of Commissioners of Divisions :—

Progress of local manufacture by steam and by hand.

Burdwan Division.—"Cotton cloth is manufactured in all the districts. It is said that a large number of the people in the Ghatal subdivision follow the profession of weaving cotton fabrics, irrespective of caste, though the earnings therefrom hardly suffice to support themselves and their families. The principal places of manufacture are Hurrypal and Khanyan in Hooghly and Chunderkona in Midnapore. This industry is on the wane, as the weavers cannot afford to sell their products as cheaply as those imported from Europe"

Presidency Division.—"It is stated that Santipore dhooties and saries are much in demand over Lower Bengal, and the outturn of the hand-looms is several lakhs in value annually. Almost all classes are said to work at weaving, and even girls of 8 or 10 years of age earn by it more than what suffices for their maintenance."

Rajshahye Division.—"Good dhooties and saries are manufactured at Pubna and its neighbourhood, and Pubna dhooties and saries have a good sale and a name in Calcutta and other towns. Cloths of a fine quality and texture, known as urni chadar, are woven at Chotadhul and other places in the Serajgunge subdivision. These articles are extensively exported to Nuddea, Hooghly, Calcutta, Bogra, Rungpore, Dacca, and other places. The outturn was the same as in the previous year. This industry is in a good state, there being a considerable and constant demand, especially for Pubna dhooties, among the natives of the better classes. Cotton cloth is woven in the other districts also, but for local use only. In this Division, as elsewhere, the competition of European commodities has to a great extent proved fatal to native handicrafts, and this is especially true of the cloth-weaving industry, which has been almost entirely driven out of the market by English piece-goods. It is satisfactory to observe that notwithstanding the competition of English piece goods, a revival has taken place in the cotton cloth manufactures of Pubna."

Chittagong Division.—"In Chittagong the weaving industry continues to hold its own against imported goods, though the thread used is generally imported."

Bhagulpore Division.—"The cotton-weaving industry in Bhagulpore is still only practised as supplementary to that of agriculture, on which latter the weaver class has now chiefly to rely. The coarse cloth manufactured by this class of weavers is preferred to European piece-goods by the poorer classes as more durable and more suitable for the cold weather. A sort of coarse cotton cloth is also manufactured by Momins and weavers in the Kissengunge and Arrareah subdivisions of Purneah. It is chiefly worn by females. A small quantity of cotton fabrics consisting of fine dhooties and chadars, and also mosquito curtains, is manufactured in Kuligram in the Maldah district. The manufacture of cloth is also carried on in the Sonthal Pergunnahs, especially in those parts of the district remote from railways, by Momins and Tantees; the texture is coarse and is mostly fabricated from locally-grown cotton; the trade in it is purely local, and there has been no increased demand"

52. The outturn of indigo in Behar last year, though larger than in the previous year, varied considerably in quality, and consequently there was a fall in prices. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"There has been an increase in the outturn in all the producing districts, except Benares, the largest advance being in Behar. The quality of the crop varied considerably. In Bengal part of the crop was inferior and part above the average. In Behar it was also above the average, whilst Benares was slightly inferior.

"The introduction of the 'ammonia' process in the manufacture of indigo is said to have produced satisfactory results, chiefly in enabling a larger quantity of colouring matter to be extracted from the plant. An equal quantity of plant giving as much as 50 per cent. more produce than under the old system.

"The average price, it will be seen, shows a considerable fall, though the crop was not an excessive one. At the opening of the season prices fell steadily, except for the descriptions suited for the American market, and this continued until the middle of January, when prices returned to the former level, except for good and fine indigo which only partially recovered the fall. It is stated that the increased production of Java indigo, which was last year double the average outturn, has seriously interfered with the prices of the finest kinds produced in India, and that the low prices ruling for these descriptions in comparison with the commoner qualities have been caused by buyers supplying these requirements in Holland The quality of the Java indigo is said to be quite equal to the best produce of Tirhoot."

53. The imports showed an increase of 21,641 maunds or 20·80 per cent. on the trade of 1885-86, but they were 30,180 maunds or 19·36 per cent. less than that of 1884-85. The advance in the imports by the East Indian Railway was 25·25 per cent., but the figures of the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a slight following off of 7·09 per cent., while the boat traffic returns exhibited a decrease of 40·78 per cent., as compared with the previous year. The sources of supply, classified by provinces, were:—

Indigo is extensively manufactured in all the districts of the Patna Division north of the Ganges. The total yield of the division last year is stated by the Commissioner to have been 59,430 maunds, valued at Rs. 1,17,29,646. In the Bhagulpore Division, the chief manufacturing districts are Monghyr and Bhagulpore. The Commissioner of the Division makes the following remarks regarding this industry:—

"The Collector of Monghyr remarks that the year opened with excellent prospects, but later in the season the rain was unseasonable, and the prices obtained were exceptionally bad. The Collector of Bhagulpore estimates the outturn for his district at 3,465 maunds, which is nearly double that of 1885-86; but prices averaged only about Rs. 202 per maund, which was about 16 per cent. worse than in the previous year. In Purneah, under a new management, one of the largest concerns, that of Gonduarah, is again flourishing. In Maldah the outturn is estimated at 972 maunds, and its value at Rs. 1,72,691. The season was a favourable one also in this district, the outturn being larger than usual, due probably to the high inundations of 1885, the continued absence of which was reported last year, as the cause of a recent decline in this industry. The outturn in the Sonthal Pergunnahs is estimated at 460 maunds, valued at Rs. 85,000."

The increase in the supplies received from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh was due to the crop in those provinces having been better than in 1885-86. As regards Bengal, indigo is cultivated only in parts of the Burdwan, Presidency, and Rajshahye Divisions. The outturn was less than in 1885-86, owing to the crops having been damaged by storms, inundations, caterpillars and excessive rain in July, August, and September.

54. The quantity of indigo exported during the year, showed an increase of 14·88 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, but a decrease of 18·15 per cent. as compared with those of 1884-85. The bulk of this trade was sea-borne, and its destination was as follows:—

Regarding this trade with foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The exports of indigo increased during the past year by 15½ per cent. in comparison with 1885-86, but the figures are not up to the average of previous years. There was nothing in the state of the trade in London to specially encourage exports. The previous year's shipments of Bengal indigo, though small, had not been particularly profitable, and in many cases losses were incurred. The general depression of trade will partly account for this, and it is also stated that the "invisible" stocks, i.e., accumulations in private warehouses, had not been cleared off, and caused dealers to restrict their purchases.

"Prices were on a very low scale at the close of 1886, and it has been calculated that they are as much as 1*s*. 5*d*. per lb. for middling and good Bengal below the average of the last twenty years. The lower qualities have not fallen to the same extent, but they are also below the average.

"To the United States the exports were the largest known. As pointed out in last year's report, direct shipments would partly account for the advance, as also would the ever-increasing population of the United States. The decline to Germany, Holland and Belgium is not large, and may be partly due to the large crop of Java indigo in the previous year. The direct shipments to Germany have, however, advanced in both quantity and value. The decline to Russia is large, and is probably due to the above-mentioned cause, the demand being delivered to Holland."

55. Last year the quantity of indigo not exported before the close of the year was 5,337 maunds; in 1885-86 there was a deficit in the imports compared with exports of 719 maunds, against a surplus of 8,824 maunds in 1884-85.

57. The importation of raw jute during the past year was below the figures for 1885-86 and 1884-85 by 18,144 maunds, or 14 per cent., and 7,88,781 maunds, or 6·04 per cent., respectively. The increased imports by rail were made at the expense of the boat and steamer trade. The increase in the quantity carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway amounted to 16·42 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and to 8·49 per cent. on those of 1884-85. The imports by country boats decreased by 10·99 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and by 34·10 per cent. as compared with 1884-85, while in the traffic carried by inland steamers, there was a decrease of 5·77 per cent. in comparison with 1885-86, but a slight advance of 1·16 per cent. on the returns of 1884-85. The following remarks on the condition of the jute trade are extracted from the Calcutta Customs report of the past official year :—

Imports.

"The crop was an average one but slightly larger one than in the previous year. The quality of the first arrivals of the crop was very satisfactory but owing to the rising of the rivers inundations occurred which caused deterioration. Notwithstanding the larger crop, prices were on a higher level than in the previous year. As is the case in all the other principal articles of export exchange has interfered with the trade in jute. When exchange fell business was facilitated and when it rose there was at once a restriction owing to the high prices asked by suppliers. By some it is argued that the higher range of prices of the past year was entirely due to the low rates of exchange ruling, and probably there is some truth in this view as the lower exchange would enable the exporter to give a higher rupee price while he could lay down the jute in England at the same sterling prices. These higher value should act as a stimulus to the production of jute as there is no doubt that the ryot has received more rupees for his goods than he got in the previous year."

58. In the Dinagepore, Rajshahye, Pubna,, and Darjeeling districts, the jute crop is said to have suffered from excessive rainfall. In his general administration report for the past year, the Commissioner of Rajshahye states that "the total quantity of jute exported from the division amounted to 62,19,623 maunds, of which Serajgunge alone exported 39 lakhs of maunds."

59. In the Dacca division jute was more extensively cultivated than in the preceding year, and although it suffered to some extent from floods, the outturn of the crop was abundant and the exports consequently considerably increased.

60. The different districts from which raw jute was largely imported into Calcutta during the past three years, are shown below, and the imports by rail are given separately:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"The export of raw jute advanced during the past year as compared with 1885-86 by nearly 3 per cent. To the United Kingdom the exports were slightly larger than in 1885-86. Throughout the year the trade in London was in a very quiet state with no great fluctuation in prices and with little or no speculation

"In Dundee the manufacturing trade has not been in a satisfactory condition notwithstanding a large and cheap supply of jute. A considerable amount of machinery has been standing and "short time" also has been resorted to. At about the close of the year a decided improvement began and the production was taken off easily. The depression which has existed so long in the trade is apparently passing away, and it is to be hoped that the improvement will continue until prices are on a more satisfactory basis than they have been for some time. Exports to France increased largely, being the highest yet reached, as the following figures show—

"To Italy there has been a decline, while to Austria the figures are on about the same level as in the previous year. The shipments to the United States were slightly in advance of those in 1885-86—probably an ordinary fluctuation."

67. The quantity of raw jute not exported before the close of the year was 23,77,718 maunds, against 26,49,358 maunds in 1885 86, and 26,88,235 maunds in 1884 85.

Compared with 1885-86, the boat traffic exhibits an increase of 752,717 bags; the traffic on the Eastern Bengal State Railway shows a very large increase of 2,964,675 bags; that on the East Indian Railway a decrease of 240,835 bags; that on road routes a decrease of 515,916 bags, and that carried by sea a small increase of 1,445 bags.

71. In connection with the manufacture of bags by power-loom in the jute mills in Bengal, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes:—

"The restriction in the production of gunny-bags referred to in last year's report has continued and is still in force. The effect it has had upon prices of bags and upon the trade generally appears to have quite justified the originators of the scheme, for the long period of depression has at last passed away and the mills are now working profitably. It was, however, decided to continue working short time for 12 months from last February and not to at once turn on the full productions. There has been such an improvement in the trade that one mill which had long been stopped is making arrangements to re-open and being work again. One mill has, however, worked full time and has not joined the combination.

"The advance in the cost of manufactured article by working short time has often been urged as an argument against the adoption of such a measure, but in the case of the jute-manufacturing industry this objection has not arisen for it is this curtailment of production which has resulted in placing the industry on a more satisfactory footing. It certainly has been the wiser course in this instance and much preferable to the view held by some people that the mills should have turned out as large a quantity as possible in order to reduce the cost. As a remedy for over-production this would not answer except by killing off the small mills and bringing about the survival of the fittest."

72. It will be seen that Dinagepore, Purneah, Rungpore, Julpigoree and Tipperah did a considerable business in hand-made gunnies. The condition of this industry in the Rajshahye Division is thus stated in the Commissioner's Administration Report of the year under report—

"In Dinagepore the chief manufacture is the weaving of gunny-cloth, which is extensively carried on in the north and west mainly by the females of the household. Gunny-bags are manufactured more or less in almost all the districts of the Division. It is said that their export is being gradually diminished owing to the cheapness and durability of mill-made bags; but the figures of 1886 point to a revival in the trade in this article. The Superintendent of the Serajgunge Jute Companny reports that the outturn at the mills during the past year was about 9,200 tons, and that employment is now given by them to 3,420 coolies, of whom 2,959 are adult men and women, and 461 children."

The total number of bags brought to Calcutta from Serajgunge by the steamer service of the Eastern Bengal State Railway was 6,9?4,240 pieces, against 6,060,740 bags in 1885-86, and 5,584,810 bags in 1884-85.

Exports.

75. The exports showed a decrease of 2,127,739 bags as compared with 1885-86, and of 12,913,093 bags as compared with 1884-85. The destination of the exports by sea during those years, was to the following places:—

The remarks made by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, under this head are extracted below:—

"In comparison with 1885-86 the export of jute gunny-bags to foreign countries has advanced during the past year by 2¾ per cent. There were increased shipments to the United States, China Hong-Kong) and "other countries," with a heavy decline to Australia, and slight decreases to the United Kingdom, Egypt and the Straits Settlements.

"The large local demand for gunny-bags, consequent on the increased shipments of wheat and linseed has probably had some effect in giving a more healthly tone to the market, and no doubt assisted in placing prices on a higher level. To the United Kingdom the exports of the past year were on about the same level as in 1885-86. The greatest fall in export has been to Australia, the decline being 33¼ per cent. This fall is owing to a failure in the harvest in certain parts of Australia necessitating fewer bags for the exportation of grain. This is seen from the figures showing the exports of grain from Australia during 1886 when a very large decline occurred. South Australia and Victoria are the two districts to which there were special decreases in gunny-bags, the figures for two years being :—

	1885-86.	1886-87.
	No.	No.
South Australia	4,672,925	2,268,050
Victoria	5,748,349	3,009,712

"The exports to the United States have increased by 8½ per cent. owing to larger shipments to San Francisco. The exports to Hong-Kong, which also show a large advance, are intended for San Francisco, so that taking the two together there has been a very considerable increase in the trade in gunny-bags with that port. These shipments were no doubt owing to the larger exports of grain from the Pacific coast of the United States during 1886."

76. During the past year the East Indian Railway carried the largest quantities to Patna (3,509,625 bags), Cawnpore (2,425,780 bags), Delhi (1,620,780 bags), Sonthal Pergunnahs (1,033,095 bags), Bhagulpore (999,250 bags), Beerbhoom (961,555 bags), Fyzabad (940,135 bags), Burdwan (921,410 bags), Monghyr (806,540 bags), Durbhunga 742,875 bags), Shahabad (581,350 bags), and Chumparun (510,930 bags). The supplies carried by country boats were, for the most part destined for Hooghly (703,272 bags), 24-Pergunnahs (226,099 bags), Nuddea (140,841 bags), Midnapore (126,870 bags), and Burdwan (123,724 bags).

77. The number of bags exported by all routes during the past year was 101,370,823 in excess of the number imported; in 1885-86 there was also an excess of 106,458,423 bags, and in 1884-85 of 119,674,316 bags. This represents part of the outturn of the mills in Calcutta and the suburbs.

GUNNY CLOTH.

78. The internal trade of Calcutta in gunny cloth registered during the past three years, is shown in the subjoined table:—

It has been explained in previous reports that gunny bags and gunny cloth are shown together in the railway returns. Previous to 1884-85 the quantities of gunny cloth and bags carried by the East Indian Railway, were shown in the returns furnished to Government under a head "gunnies". Moreover, in the case of road and boat trade, this article is registered in pieces, while in the sea-borne trade returns, it is shown in yards. For the purposes of converting pieces into yards, a machine-made piece is taken as equal to 80 yards, and a hand-made piece is equal to 22 yards. The foregoing figures, therefore, do not represent the actual extent of the transactions in Calcutta under this head (part of the trade in gunny cloth having been included under the next preceding head "gunny bags").

79. The total quantity of the sea-borne trade of Calcutta in this article during the past three years, was as follows :—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Yds.	Yds.	Yds.
Imports	48,775	10,731	......
Exports	19,923,884	25,267,418	18,480,001

80. This statement shows that no gunny cloth was imported into Calcutta by sea during 1886-87. The imports by internal routes increased by 29·63 per cent., and 26 97 per cent. over those of 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The quantity carried by country boats exhibited the largest increase, namely 7,982 pieces, as compared with the previous year. The following statement shows the different localities from which gunny cloth was largely sent to Calcutta during those years :—

81. As regards the sea-borne exports, the figures show a decrease of 26·86 per cent. and 7·25 per cent., on the returns of the two previous years, respectively, as will be seen from the following statement:—

82. Last year there was a deficit in the imports over exports of 16,978,481 yards, against a similar deficit of 24,367,471 yards in 1885 86, and 18,627,417 yards in 1884-85. These quantities represent part of the outturn of the steam mills in Calcutta and the suburbs.

Comparison of imports with exports.

83. In addition to the registered supplies detailed above, the traffic returns of the Nuddea Rivers also show a large quantity of power loom gunny cloth, amounting to 605,846 pieces, sent up country direct from the jute mills without passing the Port Commissioner's wharves. The destination of these exports, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years, was as follows:—

FOOD GRAINS.

85. The harvest of food-grains during the past year was abundant and above the average, while the prices, both wholesale and retail, of all sorts of grains in the Lower Provinces were lower in 1886 than in the four previous years. The result of the plentiful supply has been a great expansion of the Calcutta traffic under this head during the year under report. As compared with 1885-86, the aggregate increase in the import trade amounted to 21·07 per cent., while in the export trade the advance was 30·51 per cent. The following statements show the total traffic in each staple separately during the past three years :—

Expressed in tons, the imports and exports of the past three years, were as follows:—

	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.

88. This trade received a great stimulus during 1886-87 in consequence of the wheat crop in England being much below the average. The customs returns for that year contain the following remarks regarding the sea-borne wheat trade of Calcutta in that year:—

"The price of wheat during the previous year was extremely low in the United Kingdom and it continued so for a considerable portion of the year under review. There was a slight advance in April on the previously extremely low prices and in June there was a further advance. With periodical fluctuations the tendency throughout the year was to advance, the Gazette quotation in January 1887 being 35s. per quarter. This was owing to the outturn of the harvest being much below the average. In Calcutta the price was also generally higher in sympathy with the home market. The low rates of freight and the low rates of exchange have been partly the causes of these larger exports. The fluctuations in exchange have sometimes been a source of inconvenience to the trade, for when a heavy fall took place transactions were for the time stimulated, but when a rise occurred the effect was to restrict business until prices had been re-adjusted. In large trades like the wheat trade this would be particularly felt.

" While the exports from Calcutta show such a large increase the totals from the western side of India show a decline, for though Bombay exports have increased by 2 millions cwts. there has been a falling off from Sindh (Kurrachee) of over 3½ millions owts. as the following figures show :—

	1885-86.	1886-87.

„ Bombay	10,608,680	12,606,144
„ Sindh	6,241,017	2,613,776

" It will thus be seen that the proportion the Bengal trade bears to the whole of India has very much advanced during the past year."

89. The import trade of the past year showed an increase of 53·06 per cent and 134·33 per cent. in comparison with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The supplies carried by the East Indian Railway showed an increase of 24,77,911 maunds, those by the Eastern Bengal State Railway of 88,203 maunds, those by country-boats of 8,37,855 maunds, and those by inland steamers of 4,11,683 maunds. The distribution of the imports is classified by provinces in the following statement:—

The wheat crop in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh in 1886-87, was not so good as that of the previous year.

91. The different districts in Behar which contributed to the trade largely during those years were—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.

92. The large increase in the supplies received from Patna and the other districts mentioned above may be ascribed to good crops during the past two years. The estimated quantity of wheat imported by boat into the Patna district during the past year from districts in Oudh, the North-Western Provinces and North Behar was the same as in 1885-86, viz., about 10 lakhs of maunds, nearly the whole of which was exported to Calcutta.

93. The bulk of the Bengal supply of wheat was comprised of exports from the following districts:—

	1884-85. Mds.	1885-86. Mds.	1886-87. Mds.
Nuddea	2,38,825	2,23,064	5,91,082

Other districts	89,716	59,548	2,15,156
Total ...	4,60,676	3,74,998	12,17,415

94. The largest increase occurred in the Nuddea district where the cultivation of wheat has been rapidly expanding since 1884-85 when it received a special stimulus from the loss of the winter rice which occurred in that year. The whole district is intersected by rivers, of which the annual inundations leave a rich alluvial deposit upon the soil and fit it to yield excellent cold weather crops. As regards the Hooghly district, it may be explained that wheat is not grown to any appreciable extent in that district, or indeed in any district of the Burdwan division, but is imported from the North-Western Provinces and Behar for local consumption and for export. The advance in the despatches from the Moorshedabad district is said to be due to the outturn last year having considerably exceeded that of the previous year.

95. The consignments from railway stations which supplied the largest quantity during the past year are compared below with the figures of the two previous years:—

Regarding the exports of wheat to foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows :—

" The exports of wheat have advanced during the past year in comparison with 1885-86, by 68 per cent., and were the highest yet reached with the exception of the year 1883-84. There were increased shipments to the United Kingdom, Belgium, France, Holland Réunion, Italy and Egypt against a small decline to Mauritius

" To the United Kingdom the advance was 25¾ per cent. The harvest in England was a poor one, but this apparently had no effect upon the total importations into that country as the following figures show—

" The continent of Europe to which there were practically no shipments in 1885-86 have again drawn portion of their supplies from Calcutta. After two blank years exports to Belgium have been resumed as they also have to France after one blank year. The shipments to France from the whole of India show an advance over the previous year's figures notwithstanding the duty levied on wheat which has recently been raised in that country in the interests of the farmer. The figures are not, however, up to the level of the year 1884-85. To Italy exports show a marked advaneed and for the first time the figures are of importance being for the past five years—

" There were also much larger shipments from Bombay, the kind of wheat shipped from that port being it is said preferred because it is better adapted for the production of macaroni. There were also increased shipments to Australia amounting to 39,567 cwts. There must have been a fall in the production of wheat to call forth exports from India. This would also appear from the very heavy decline in the importations into the United Kingdom from Australia. To Port Said there were again large shipments consigned to that place 'for orders' regarding the ultimate destination of the vessel."

99. After deduction of the exports from the imports, there remained 12,80,837 maunds, against 13,75,770 maunds in 1885-86, and 11,07,006 maunds in 1884-85.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

101. The total increase under imports was 28·35 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and 34·21 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The supply carried by rail, which amounted to 60·72 per cent. of the total trade, was 25·94 per cent. more than in 1885-86. In the case of the East Indian Railway, the increase amounted to 12·56 per cent., while in that of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, the advance was so much as 197·31 per cent.; the boat traffic exhibited an increase of 34·06 per cent., while the quantities carried by inland steamers, rose from 4,348 maunds in 1885-86 to 65,986 maunds in 1886-87. The figures of the road traffic showed a decrease of 17,457 maunds, and those of the sea-borne imports, of 32,110 maunds.

Imports.

102. The different provinces from which gram and pulses were consigned to Calcutta during the past three years, are shown in the subjoined statement :—

The decrease in the imports of gram and pulses from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and the Punjab is ascribed to the partial failure of the wheat harvest in those provinces, on account of which gram and pulses were kept for local consumption. On the other hand, the crops in Bengal and Behâr were very good, and the despatches from those provinces showed a considerable increase. The districts in Bengal which contributed most to the increase were—Furreedpore, Nuddea, Moorshedabad, and Jessore, the exports from which rose by 1,34,324 maunds, 1,16,337 maunds, 87,281 maunds, and 86,029 maunds, respectively. Of the Behar districts; Patna and Monghyr sent the largest quantities, the advance over the figures of 1885-86 being 6,57,504 maunds and 2,81,224 maunds, respectively.

Regarding the exports to foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes as follows:—

"The exports of gram have advanced during the past year, in comparison with 1885-86, by 93 per cent., and the figures are the highest shown in the table. There were larger shipments to all the principal countries taking gram from Calcutta, the advance in the exports to Mauritius amounting to 113½ per cent. To the Ceylon and also to the Straits Settlements the exports show large increases, being respectively 52¼ and 72¾ per cent.

"During the two years 1884-86, this trade in gram perceptibly diminished owing to its being diverted to other parts of India, but in the past year it has returned to its ordinary channels, and Calcutta has again obtained its share. I am unable to give the reasons for this, as the trade is almost entirely in the hands of Native and Arab shippers, who appear to be unable to account for it."

108. After deduction of the total exports from the total quantity imported into Calcutta, there remained a surplus of 18,82,588 maunds, against 17,47,373 maunds in 1885-86, and 15,96,975 maunds in 1884-85.

110. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks on the condition of the rice trade with the United Kingdom, during the past official year:—

"There was not throughout the past year at any time a special demand for rice in London and prices experienced but few fluctuations. The year has been a most disappointing one to importers in the United Kingdom, for though the statistical position was said to be strong, stock in Europe being lower than for many years, there was no decided advance in values. The demand was not sufficiently extensive to take off all the supplies of Bengal rice imported into London, during the year there having been an advance in stocks, as the following figures show:—

	Tons.
1884	3,665
1885	2,476
1886	11,805

"These larger stocks have followed upon larger receipts during the calendar year 1886 as the smaller supplies of the past official year from both here and Burma had apparently not been received, as the figures of total imports into the United Kingdom show an increase, being—

111. The supply brought to Calcutta was 5·03 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1885-86, and 12·45 per cent. over those for 1884-85. Compared with 1885-86, the increase was most marked in the consignments of rice carried by the East Indian Railway (79·50 per cent.), while the quantity imported by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a decrease of 13·39 per cent. On the other hand, the traffic carried by country boats showed an increase of 1·10 per cent. under rice, but a decrease of 13·63 per cent. under paddy; the supplies of rice imported by inland steamers were 63·80 per cent in excess of the previous year's trade; while the imports by sea showed a falling off of 39·28 per cent. under rice, and of 56·18 per cent. under paddy, and those by road routes of 9·54 per cent. under rice. The increase in the exports of rice to foreign and Indian ports amounted to 12·71 per cent. as compared with the previous year. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes as follows on the causes of fluctuations in this trade with foreign countries:—

"The exports of paddy have advanced during the past year in comparison with 1885-86 by 270 per cent., and the figures are the highest shown. The trade in unhusked rice is usually of small dimensions, generally consisting of small shipments to Ceylon. During the past year an entirely new trade has sprung up in this grain, as there were large shipments, amounting to 48,951 cwts., to China (Hong-Kong) for the first time. This paddy was of a low quality sold at very low prices, and on account of its cheapness was preferred for distillation purposes.

"In rice husked there was a decline in the past year, as compared with 1885-86, of 7¾ per cent. There were decreases to the United Kingdom, Cape Colony, Réunion, South America, West Indies, Persia, Ceylon, and Australia, against advances to Mauritius, Aden, Arabia, and the Straits Settlements.

"To the United Kingdom there was a decline of 29 per cent., and the figures are the lowest shown. Ceylon still continues to be the most important consumer of Bengal rice, though there was a fall in exports from this port during the past year of 15 per cent. There has, however, been no falling off in shipments to Ceylon from other Indian ports The consumption of rice in Ceylon should now show signs of permanent increase, for there must have been a considerable influx of coolies to work on the tea gardens opened out in recent years, and the further extension of these estates should necessitate increased rice being imported for the support of these coolies, who are drawn principally from Southern India. To Mauritius there was an advance of 17¼ per cent., and the figures are the highest shown. This does not indicate any increase in the consumption of rice in that island, as the total exports from India have declined during the past year. To Arabia there was a considerable increase in shipments, and to Aden also the exports show an advance There have again been small exports to France amounting to 16,120 cwts., while to Italy there were again no exports. To Egypt also the shipments were again small. The exports to Germany continue to expand, the figures since the trade began four years ago being—

Paddy is not included in the foregoing statement. The total imports of paddy during the past year being 12,21,609 maunds, and the total exports 4,36,419 maunds, there remained a balance of 7,85,190 maunds, which at the rate of 25 seers of rice to a maund of paddy, is equivalent to 4,90,744 maunds of rice.

MISCELLANEOUS SPRING AND RAIN CROPS.

119. Under this heading are compared barley, kodo, shama, Indian corn, oats, millets and other crops, which are reaped during the spring and rainy seasons. The total quantity of the Calcutta trade in these staples during the past three years, is given below—

120. The total trade under imports was very nearly the same as in the previous year, but it showed a decrease of 8·29 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The imports by the East Indian Railway, and by country boats were 62·36 per cent. and 29·96 per cent. in excess of the previous year's figures, respectively, but the traffic carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway shews a decline of 1,65,368 maunds. The sources of the supply, province by province, were as follows—

The increase in the imports from Behar occurred chiefly in the despatches from the Patna and Bhagulpore districts, which exceeded the figures of 1885-86 by 58,620 maunds, and 59,086 maunds, respectively. As regards Bengal, the principal districts from which the supplies fell off were Nuddea and Furreedpore, which sent 1,10,138 maunds and 16,840 maunds less than in the previous year.

121. The principal supplying marts, both on river routes and on the line of rail which contributed largely to the trade, were—

122. The export trade of the past year exceeded the figures of 1885-86 by 22·57 per cent., but it showed a falling off of 33·23 per cent. in comparison with 1884-85. The sea-borne exports were distributed, as follows:—

HIDES.

124. The hide trade of Calcutta registered during the past three years, was as follows:—

125. The total quantity carried to Calcutta during the past year was 12·62 per cent. below the trade of 1885-86, and 11·02 per cent. below that of 1884-85. Compared with 1885-86, the supply brought by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed an increase of 215,016 pieces, but the figures of the East Indian Railway fell off by 1,127,280 pieces, those of the boat traffic by 82,618 pieces, and those of the inland steamer traffic by 68,588 pieces. There was very little change in the imports by road routes and by sea. The statement below shows all the provinces from which the supply of hides was derived, during the past three years:—

Of the total imports from Behar, 1,791,057 pieces were drawn from the Patna Division, the Patna district alone contributing 1,143,949 pieces; from the Bhagulpore Division the supplies aggregated 741,355 pieces, of which the Bhagulpore and Purneah districts each contributed a little over one-third.

The imports from Bengal were consigned from the different divisions, shown below:—

The largest decreases occurred in the supplies received from the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, where the hide trade was very slack during the year. The Commissioner of the former division in his general administration report for the past year states "that although large importations were made from the districts of the Chota Nagpore Division, there was hardly any demand for it in the Calcutta market. The exportations fell from Rs. 70,000 in 1885-86 to Rs. 40,000 in 1886-87."

Imports by sea.

129. The sea imports during the past year were received from Balasore (220,843 pieces against 237,175 pieces), Chittagong (81,010 pieces against 71,527 pieces), and Madras (98,321 pieces against 130,598 pieces), and Burmah (95,170 pieces against 28,050 pieces).

Exports.

130. The decrease in the export trade during the past year was 1·16 per cent. on the figures for 1885-86. Compared, however, with 1884-85, the past year's trade showed an advance of 3·73 per cent. The destination of the sea-borne trade was as follows :—

The Collector of Customs Calcutta, writes:—

"The export of raw hides, which were in 1885-86 the highest yet reached, declined during the past year by 9¼ per cent., and were on about the same level as in 1884-85. There were increased shipments to the United Kingdom and to Austria against decreases to France, Italy and the United States.

"There was throughout the year a good demand for hides generally, and all receipts were readily taken up by buyers, so that there were no accumulation of stocks, notwithstanding that very little encouragement was received from the home markets. Prices were at one time higher than in the beginning of the year, but at the close they had fallen again.

"To the United Kingdom the advance is a small one, only 1½ per cent. There was no special demand at any period of the year, and the trade generally quiet. There was a small increase in stocks in the United Kingdom at the end of 1886. The shipments to Austria (Trieste) have partially recovered the fall shown in 1885-86, but they were considerably below the exports of 1884-85."

"After steadily advancing for several years, the exports of hides to Italy have received a check, being 31⅝ per cent. below the shipments of the previous year, which were probably not all taken into consumption. This would act as a deterrent in the following year. To the United States there was also a decline amounting to 29½ per cent. The large shipments of the previous year were no doubt in excess of requirements, and shipments during the past year were therefore discouraged.

"The exports of dressed hides have still further fallen away, and the trade is now of no importance."

131. The deficit in imports over exports was 353,206 pieces during the past year, but in 1885-86 the imports balanced the exports with a surplus amounting to 588,868 pieces, against a surplus of 765,755 pieces in 1884-85.

133. There was a recovery in the salt trade during the past year, and the figures, both under imports and exports, are the highest ever recorded since the commencement of traffic registration in Bengal in 1876-77. According to the published fortnightly prices current, the average retail price of salt in the Lower Provinces during 1886-87 was 5 chittacks, or 2·65 per cent. above that of 1885-86, and 4 chittacks, or 2·18 per cent above that of 1884-85. 135. The report on the administration of the Salt Department for the year 1886-87, contains the following remarks on the fluctuations noticed in the foregoing statement :—

"In Calcutta there was an increase in the importations from the United Kingdom, Hamburg, Arabian and Persian Gulfs, and Italy, while there was a decrease in the importations from Bombay, and no salt was imported from Port Augustus. Over 62,000 maunds of salt were imported from Aden and a small quantity from Cape Town. The increase in the importations from Italy is attributed by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, to the dullness of the freight market and to steamers being able to secure return cargoes, in consequence of which two lines ran continuously for some time. The decrease in the importations from Bombay is said to be due to the restrictions placed upon the salt trade there, the chief of which is the advance payment of duty. With regard to the importations from Aden, the Collector of Customs remarks as follows :—

"Towards the close of the year one cargo of salt in every respect similar to Jeddah or that imported from the Mediterranean was imported from Aden, where an enterprising firm has started manufacturing kurkutch on a very large scale. It seems probable that this salt will before long form an important addition to our importation. Aden being some days nearer than Jeddah, and as large numbers of steamers go there with coal which have hitherto had to return in ballast, it seems probable that before long a profitable business will be opened out for such steamers to fill up with salt for the return voyage."

"The marked increase in the quantity imported from Hamburg is due to the growth of the direct trade with Germany within the last four years."

136 The total quantity of indigenous salt imported into Calcutta by the East Indian Railway during 1886-87 was 300 maunds, against 332 maunds in 1885-86, and 95 maunds in 1884-85. Of the past year's supply 272 maunds were received from the Punjab and 28 maunds from the North-Western Provinces.

Exports.

137. The total exports of salt from Calcutta showed a rise of 6·90 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and 5·69 per cent. on those of 1884-85. The quantities carried by country boats formed 38·15 per cent. of the total trade, and showed a decrease of 1,47,818 maunds and 2,07,656 maunds as compared with the two years 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The East Indian Railway returns showed an increase of 3,03,810 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and of 1,95,720 maunds when compared with 1884-85. The consignments by the Eastern Bengal State Railway showed a similar increase of 1,03,212 maunds and 84,172 maunds, respectively. The exports by inland steamers were 2,05,653 maunds in excess of those of the previous year, and 2,73,736 maunds over those of 1884-85, while the road traffic showed a decrease of 2,003 maunds and 7,457 maunds, respectively. The distribution of the exports is classified according to provinces in the following statement :—

Comparison of imports with exports.

138. After deducting exports from imports there remained a surplus of 12,03,198 maunds, against 4,30,278 maunds in 1885-86, and 6,36,290 maunds in 1884-85.

Clearances from ship-board and bond.

139. The quantities on which duty was paid in Calcutta and the 24-Pergunnahs, during the past three years, as compared with the inland despatches from Calcutta, are given in the following statement :—

	Sea-imported salt.	Excise salt.	Total clearances.	Sent into the interior.

† Ditto 5,25,983 ditto Bombay and Madras salt, which was passed free of duty.
‡ Ditto 5,30,403 ditto Bombay salt, which was passed free of duty.

The total clearances of salt last year showed a slight increase of 6·69 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and of 3·24 per cent. on those of 1884-85.

140. According to the foregoing figures, the total quantity of salt retained for consumption in Calcutta and the Suburbs, Hooghly, and a part of the 24-Pergunnahs district, and also available for export to the interior, was 8,61,454 maunds, against 8,23,467 maunds in 1885-86, and 10,32,792 maunds in 1884-85.

SALT TRADE OF BENGAL.

Imports.

141. The total quantity of salt sent to the different Divisions of the Lower Provinces other than those of Behar was as follows:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.

151. The condition of the saltpetre trade is thus described by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta:—

"The market of saltpetre here was generally steady and firm throughout the year; prices were on a slightly higher level than in the previous year; but the fluctuations in price were not of an excessive character, the difference between the highest and lowest quotation throughout the year being only about four annas per maund."

152. Last year the import trade remained nearly the same as in 1885-86, but the figures were below those of 1884-85 by 13·14 per cent. The traffic on the East Indian Railway fell off by 35,488 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and that carried by country boats by 5,755 maunds. For the first time last year the river steamers carried 29,538 maunds from the Behar districts, at the cost of both the railway traffic, and traffic by country boats. The sources of supply, classified by provinces, were as follows:—

Owing to heavy rains and floods, the manufacture of saltpetre in the Patna Division was injuriously affected. In the Bhagulpore Division, this article is manufactured to a small extent in the Beguserai sub-division of the Monghyr district, and it is said that the good harvests of the year had the effect of diminishing the manufacture, the poorer classes being engaged more extensively in agricultural operations.

153. The quantities carried by rail during the past three years, were for the most part booked from the following stations:—

The customs returns show that there was a falling off in the shipments to the United Kingdom, and to the United States against advances to France and China.

157. After deduction of the gross exports from the total quantity imported into Calcutta, there remained a surplus of 83,204 maunds, against 93,578 maunds in 1885-86, and 1,02,244 maunds in 1884-85.

These figures show that 99 per cent. of the total imports into Calcutta were exported by sea. It is said that the export trade last year was stimulated by the low rates of freight and low exchange. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes as follows regarding this trade:—

"There was at about the beginning of the year a rapid advance in prices, in sympathy with the higher rates ruling in the home market, but this rise was not maintained, and values gradually fell. Low rates of freight and low exchange operated in producing these large exports, and any upward tendency in either of these had the effect of checking business until prices had been re-adjusted."

159. The large increase noticed in the imports during 1885-86, was further extended during the year under report, the figures being nearly 77¼ lakhs of maunds, against over 63¼ lakhs of maunds in 1885-86, and 49⅔ lakhs of maunds in 1884-85. The imports by boat were 1,36,646 maunds below those in 1885-86, but the quantity carried by inland steamers, exhibited a large increase of 1,68,021 maunds, while the figures of the East Indian Railway showed an advance of 14,15,540 maunds; the Eastern Bengal State Railway carried 40,394 maunds less than in 1885-86, and the imports by road also showed a slight falling off of 8,073 maunds. The following table gives an abstract of the imports, province by province, during the past three years :—

The increase of nearly 14,00,000 of maunds in the supplies received from Behar is chiefly due to the imports from the Patna district having risen by 8,60,886 maunds, from Durbhunga by 2,46,446 maunds, from Chumparun by 1,44,677 maunds, from Monghyr by 72,866 maunds, and Shahabad by 68,514 maunds. The advance in the imports from Sarun, Purneah and Maldah were trifling, while Gya, Mozufferpore, Bhagulpore, and the Sonthal Pergunnahs showed slight decreases.

The largest increase occurred in the supply received from the Patna district. All the linseed exported from that district is not grown there, but like wheat, this staple is largely imported from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and North Behar chiefly for export to Calcutta. Last year there was a strong demand for this staple for export by sea, and it is stated that the Patna district imported about 20 lakhs of maunds of linseed from other districts of Behar and from the Upper Provinces.

Exports.

162. There has been an increase in the exports of 19·08 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 49·63 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The details of the sea-borne trade, are shown in the following statement:—

The following extract from the Calcutta Customs Collector's report relates to the fluctuations in the sea-borne trade—

"The exports of this seed have advanced during the past year by 19 per cent. in comparison with 1885-86, and were again the highest since 1882-83. The United Kingdom again took a larger quantity, as also did France, while to the United States there was a further decline.

"While the exports from Calcutta show a large increase, the shipments from other ports have declined, as the following figures of exports from the whole of India indicate—

	1885-86.			1886-87.
	Cwt.			Cwt.
From India ...	9,510,139	100	per cent.	8,656,933	100	per cent.
" Calcutta ...	4,720,538	49·7	"	5,619,522	64·8	"

"The very low rates of freight as in the previous year have no doubt had a good deal to do with this, and the further diversion of this trade to the western side of India, which appeared probable two years ago, has not taken effect, as during the past year there were decreases in shipments from both Bombay and Sind (Kurachee).

"There has been a further falling off in exports to the United States, and the figures are about one-fifth of those shown under 1883-84 and 1884-85. The home crop of linseed has no doubt been sufficiently large to require very little to supplement it The reason for this larger production in the United States was no doubt that given in last year's report, viz., a diversion from wheat to linseed owing to the very low prices ruling for the former. The shipments to France have advanced, and the total exports from India to that country also show a small increase."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

163. During the year under report, the surplus of imports over exports was 72,311 maunds; in 1885-86, however, the exports exceeded the imports by 98,556 maunds, against a similar deficit of 1,47,469 maunds in 1884-85.

MUSTARD SEED.

164. The amount of the Calcutta trade in mustard seed during the past three years, was as follows:—

165. The Customs report for the past official year shows that the depressed condition of the home market tended to the contraction of the shipments of mustard seed from Calcutta, as well as from other ports in India.

166. In the import trade, which fell off by 11·17 per cent. and 28·27 per cent. as compared with the returns of the two years 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively, the largest decrease, namely 2,75,750 maunds, occurred in the quantities carried by inland steamers; the supply brought by the Eastern Bengal State Railway also showed a decline of 93,518 maunds as compared with 1885-86. The following statement shows the places of supply, province by province, during the past three years:—

Imports.

	1884-85. Mds.	1885-86. Mds.	1886-87. Mds.

Other places	59,576	47,417	16,172
Total ...	37,99,891	30,68,589	27,25,680

167. The falling off in the imports from Behar was trifling, but the fluctuations in the supplies received from the different districts as compared with 1885-86 were marked. For instance, the despatches from Patna declined by 1,38,976 maunds, from Bhagulpore by 48,109 maunds, from the Sonthal Pergunnahs by 47,844 maunds, and from Monghyr by 34,191 maunds, while the consignments from Sarun rose by 66,452 maunds, from Chumparun by 49,220 maunds, from Durbhunga by 37,645 maunds, from Maldah by 13,853 maunds, from Purneah by 10,421 maunds, and from Shahabad, Mozufferpore and Gya by 14,217 maunds. Of the Bengal districts, Pubna shows the largest decrease, viz. 1,79,137 maunds, and Dacca 82,327 maunds; the advance in the quantity received from Hooghly was 31,226 maunds, from Nuddea 14,920 maunds, and Furreedpore 11,972 maunds. Owing to late rains the outturn of the crop in the Rajshahye division was not so good as in 1885-86. The decrease in the supplies received from Assam was due to the despatches from Goalpara and Kamroop having fallen off by 1,34,732 maunds and 69,662 maunds respectively. The area sown last year in Assam was less than in the previous year, and the crop was a smaller one than usual, owing to excessive rain in September and October 1886. Of the mustard seed received from Assam part is made into oil which is returned to that province. In paragraph 22 of the report on the inter district trade in Assam for 1886-87, it is remarked that "the anomaly by which Assam continues to grow its mustard seed and to send it down to Bengal that it may be returned as oil still exists. Many reasons have been assigned for the persistence of this very peculiar state of things. The most plausible is that the mustard oil of Bengal is not pure, that it has a peculiar flavour (due to adulteration) which renders it acceptable to the Assamese palate and preferable to the pure mustard oil produced in the province itself." As regards the imports from the North-Western Provinces, the outturn of mustard seed was very deficient in 1885-86 in the Benares and Allahabad divisions, but last year the crop was better, and consequently the imports from those Provinces increased.

168. The subjoined table shows all the railway stations which principally contributed to the trade during the past year, as compared with the figures of the preceding two years:—

171. The exports of mustard-seed were below those of 1885-86 by 27·48 per cent., but when compared with 1884-85, the falling off amounted to 50·23 per cent. The quantities shipped from Calcutta by sea during those years, were destined as follows:—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"There has been a falling off in the total exports of this seed of 41¼ per cent. during the past year in comparison with 1885-86, and the figures are the lowest tabulated. The United Kingdom took a smaller quantity as also did France. The decline to the former amounted to 40¼ per cent., and the exports were not more than one-half of the average of the past four years. The trade in the United Kingdom was again in a depressed state with a further fall in the range of prices in comparison with the previous year."

172. If exports be deducted from imports, there remain 12,15,435 maunds, against 9,85,974 maunds in 1885-86, and 7,65,267 maunds in 1884-85.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

174. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, makes the following remarks on the condition of this trade:—

"There was an improved demand in Europe for silk owing to the fact that a change in fashion has occurred and pure silk manufactures are in greater demand. An advance in price has been established and has no doubt called forth the large shipments of pure silk from Bengal to the United Kingdom and to Italy The slight fall in chussum is probably owing to the larger quantity of pure silk reeled in the European factories. When the price of silk is high, natives are not able to buy cocoons for the purpose of reeling for local consumption, and consequently a larger proportion of cocoons goes to the European factories where better methods of reeling are employed. The result is a smaller production of waste and a consequent fall in the exports. The advance in cocoons was due to a larger demand in England for waste silk in that form, and also partly to the larger quantity received from Assam, consisting principally of the kind known as "eri."

175. Last year the import trade exceeded the figures for 1885-86 by 16·92 per cent., but it was below those for 1884-85 by 4·90 per cent. The quantity brought to Calcutta by the East Indian Railway was 24·08 per cent. in excess of the imports by that route during the preceding year, and that brought by the Eastern Bengal State Railway increased by 40·71 per cent. The boat traffic, however, remained nearly the same as in 1885-86. The condition of the silk industry in the interior is thus described in the divisional annual administration reports for the past official year.

Imports.

Burdwan Division.—Excepting Burdwan and Hooghly, the rearing of silk-worms and manufacture of mulberry silk obtains in all the districts of the Division to a greater or less extent. The manufacture is conducted on a large scale at the Gonotea and Bhuddessur filatures in Beerbhum, owned by the Bengal Silk Company, Limited, where the outturn during the year is reported to have been 249 maunds, valued at about 2 lacs of rupees. A variety of silk, known as kora, is also manufactured in this district, the estimated value of the year's outturn being a little more than one lac of rupees. Silk fabrics are manufactured in the towns of Bishenpur, Birsingher and Sonamooki in Bankurah. The "kutai" of Sonamookia is still in demand in the North-Western Provinces. It is also liked both by European and Native gentlemen for screens, quilts, pillowcases, &c. Here, as elsewhere, the silk industry is on the decline. In Midnapur silk fabrics are chiefly manufactured at Nimtolah, Ghatal, Despur, and Radhanugger. Silk of the finest texture is made in these places to order and exported to the North-Western Provinces, where it is much in requisition for ladies' dresses. A superior quality of silk cloth called gorud is prepared at Mymari and Radhakantpur in Burdwan. All the silk is imported. It is reported that a piece of cloth measuring 10 yards sells for from Rs. 10 to Rs 22, according to the quality of the fabric.

Silk cocoons are reared in the Sudder, Tumlook, and Ghatal sub-divisions of Midnapur. It is reported that 268 maunds of silk, valued at Rs. 1,05 674, were sold in the Tumlook sub-division alone during the year. In the Ghatal sub-division 595 maunds of silk, worth Rs. 3,99,401, are reported to have been manufactured during the year, against 252 maunds, worth Rs. 1,31,554 in the previous year. The sudden impulse which the business received is ascribed to the demand for silk made by some German firms at the latter end of the year, which has had the effect of driving prices very high. The sub-divisional officer of Ghatal reports that the cocoons reared in his sub-division are degenerating on account of disease and untimely death of the worms.

Excepting Hooghly and Howrah, tusser silk is manufactured in all the districts. In Burdwan, Mankor is the chief centre of this industry. The outturn of last year is estimated at 56,000 maunds, against 56,910 maunds in the previous year. It is reported that this industry, notwithstanding some spasmodic revivals, due to changes of fashion in Europe, is waning. In Bankurah the seats of tusser industry are the towns of Bankurah and Birsingpur in the Sudder, and Bishenpur, Sonomookhi, and Joypur in the Bissenpur sub-divisions. Tusser cocoons are imported from the districts of the Chota Nagpur Division to supplement home production. It is reported that the business of the tusser-weavers is at a low ebb, in consequence of the high price of cocoons, consequent on the large purchases of several European firms. This has had the effect of driving many a weaver to betake himself to cotton spinning, a less lucrative occupation. Tusser-fabrics of Bankurah, though coarse, are much liked in Calcutta and the North-Western Provinces; and the ruin of the industry is much to be regretted. Tusser is also largely manufactured in Beerbhoom. Five thousand eight hundred kahans (a kahan is equal to 1,280 cocoons) of cocoons were imported from Chybassa and Calcutta by native weavers. Here also competition with the European traders has much reduced the margin of profit earned by a native weaver. It is reported that, notwithstanding the reduction in the profit, 11,000 pieces, each of 10 yards, were manufactured; worth about Rs. 88,000. Tusser silk is also manufactured in the Sudder and Ghatal sub-divisions of Midnapur. The cocoons are procured from the jungle mehals and the adjoining districts of Singhboom, Manbhoom, &c. A new factory has recently been opened at Ghatal by a European firm, where tusser silk is manufactured. It is said that a discovery facilitating the reeling of a continuous thread from the cocoon, has imparted a fresh impulse to this industry. The cocoons are now fetching nearly twice their old price."

Presidency Division.—"Silk is manufactured to some extent throughout the Moorshedabad district, but chiefly in the Sudder, Kandy, and Jungipore sub-divisions. The largest filature proprietors are the European firms of Messrs. Lins, Payen and Company, the Bengal Silk Company, and Messrs. Watson and Company; but this last firm has during the past two years closed many of its filatures which were not paying. The French firm, it is stated, some two or three years ago commenced making tussur at Bagerpara, which is now a great success, and is carried on there on a large scale. Prices of Bengal silk are said to have risen somewhat lately, but the trade is still much depressed.

During the year under report there were 91 filatures and factories in the district, producing 230,120 pounds of silk, the value of which amounted to Rs. 17,22,765. In the previous year the number of factories in the district was 72, which produced 200,711 pounds valued at Rs. 13,03,914. It thus appears that the past year was a favourable one. The best specimens of silk are manufactured at Baluchar, Mirzapore, and in the jurisdiction of the Dowlatabad police-station. The Mirzapore silk cloths, which are of a superior and lasting quality, are exported to Calcutta and other places."

Rajshahye Division.—"The outturn of silk manufactured in the Rajshahye district by European agency again shows a slight falling off, there being a decrease of 4,640lbs., or 58 maunds. The causes were the same as in the former year—drought in March and April and heavy rains in July and August, the result being that in both years the outturn was only half of the November or cold-weather crop. The condition of the industry, particularly as regards disease and deterioration of the worm, occupied the attention of Government during the year, and a Silk Conference was held in Calcutta in March 1887. While on tour I was enabled to inspect, at Surdah, experiments being made to manufacture silk from the wild tussur cocoon, and the result has been the manufacture of 61 maunds this year. If the experiment is a success, as these cocoons can be kept for almost any length of time, the result will be the continuous employment of the labour now employed at intervals as the different 'bundhas' fall due.

"The manufacture of silk by native agency continues to the same extent as in former years. From what I can learn, though the industry is not greatly increasing, I do not find there is any falling back, and the outturn may be estimated at about 180 maunds.

"The silk industry in Bogra is almost extinct. Erendi or Endi silk is manufactured in Dinagepore, Rungpore, and Julpigoree, but is not exported. The cloth manufactured from this silk is light, warm, of extraordinary durability, and improves by washing. An Endi garment is an heirloom among the poorer classes."

Bhagulpore Division.—The manufacture of tussur in Bhagulpore is maintained, but the industry is a decaying one. During the year 20,544 pieces of the cloth, valued at Rs. 1,23,264, were exported. This shows a decrease in the amount manufactured as compared with last year's figures, but there was an improvement in the prices obtained. The industry remains in the same hands. During the past season, however, agents of Messrs. R. Watson and Company have been buying up tussur silk cocoons in this district to the value of Rs. 20,000, and the rise in prices resulting from these operations is likely to increase the production of cocoons.

There are two principal silk factories under European management in the Maldah district—one at Bholahat and the other at Baraghoria. The latter has out-works at Mahadipore and Jalalpore. An out-work formerly existing at Haripore has been closed. There are also numerous native filatures. The silk is exported chiefly to Calcutta, Nagpore and the North-Western Provinces. The large manufacturers export direct, but the produce of the small filatures is taken to the neighbouring markets and there disposed of, if possible.

The outturn of raw silk from the native filatures during the last two years has been about the same, and the following table shows the prices :—

	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Rs. A.	Rs. A.
Fine silk	16 0 per seer.	15 0 per seer.
Coarse silk	11 0 „	10 8 „
Jatam or silk refuse	1 8 „	1 12 „
Cocoons	36 0 per maund.	40 0 per maund.

The production of and demand for silk fabrics have considerably declined The Collector believes this decline to be due to better and cheaper qualities being manufactured in Europe. Three hundred and twenty maunds of raw silk were produced at the European factories during the year, as compared with 288 maunds in the preceding year. I believe a good deal might be done to improve the breed of silk-worms. These are reared by natives of the country, chiefly who follow what are now very ancient methods of rearing and treatment of the worms generally, which might doubtless be much improved by the introduction of more modern and scientific methods.

Chota Nagpore Division.—The price of tussur cocoons was doubled, and in some parts of the Division trebled, during the year owing to the keen and extensive competition of several European firms in making purchases. The trade in cocoons has thus been stimulated in a remarkable degree all over the Division, and has penetrated to the more accessible Native States. So far the advantage has been very great, but one unfortunate result has been to check, and almost annihilate for a time, the local manufacture of tussur silk. The weavers cannot afford to compete with the wealthy speculators for the raw material. The Deputy Commissioner of Manbhum says that he has ascertained by enquiry that numbers of silk-weavers at Raghunathpore and other places have taken to cloth-weaving, finding it impossible to make a livelihood out of silk. He thinks that the silk-weaving industry on its present basis is moribund, and cannot hope to revive unless filatures are established within the district, under skilled supervision. In Hazaribagh two new filatures have been established at Hasir and Sarun, two large villages in the south-east of the district, and in Lohardugga a filature is being erected in Palamow, and is expected to commence working during the current year.

Principal railway stations.

176. The railway stations from which raw silk was brought to Calcutta in large quantities during the past year, were Azimgunge (5,122 maunds against 4,589 maunds), Damookdea (4,725 maunds against 4,464 maunds), and Mooraroee (2,793 maunds against 2,687 maunds).

Principal river marts.

177. The different river marts from which the consignments were largest, were Ghattal (3,787 maunds against 2.390 maunds), Midnapore (1,451 maunds against 1,338 maunds), and Tumlook (256 maunds against 386 maunds).

Exports.

178. In the export trade, there was an increase of 11·99 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and a decrease 4·89 per cent. in comparison with 1884-85. The distribution of the sea-borne trade was as follows :—

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes :—

"In comparison with the year 1885-86 the exports of raw silk to foreign countries increased during the past year by 9¾ per cent. The principal advance was to the United Kingdom of 16 per cent. and to Italy also there was an increase of 6½ per cent.; while to France the shipments were on about the same scale as in the previous year.

"In the London market during the autumn of last year there was such a large demand that all th- stocks were cleared out, and there was actually nothing for sale. In London the price of Bengal silk also shows an important advance, the quotation being on—

		s. d. s. d.
1st January 1886	.. ...	... 9 6 to 15 0
Ditto 1887	... ...	... 11 0 to 16 0

"The exports of pure silk, though showing an increase during the past year, were not up to the average of previous years. I attribute this to the larger local d mand for the production of piece-goods, the export of which during the past ten years have been doubled in quantity. The exports to coast ports show a slight increase being 275,127 lbs. against 240,345 lbs. in 1885-86, but they were not equal to those in 1884-85, which amounted to 323,659 lbs."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

179. The excess of imports over exports amounted to 3,050 maunds, against 1,661 maunds in 1885-86, and 3,210 maunds in 1884-85.

SUGAR.

Imports.

181. The total quantity of drained sugar imported last year was 11·61 per cent. in excess of the trade of 1885-86, and 10·33 per cent. above that of 1884-85. Under undrained sugar, there was a slight decrease of 4·39 per cent. and 10·24 per cent. on the returns of the two previous years, respectively. The largest increase occurred in the imports by sea, namely, 79,064 maunds under drained, and 82,711 maunds under undrained sugar, in comparison with 1885-86. In the figures of boat traffic, there was a decrease of 25,469 maunds under drained sugar, and of 87,986 maunds under undrained sugar, while the rail-borne traffic showed a falling off of 9,739 maunds and 41,521 maunds under the two kinds, respectively. Over 10,000 maunds of drained sugar were for the first time last year shipped from Behar by river steamers, which have been running on the Ganges since the commencement of the year under report.

The total supply brought to Calcutta during the past three years from each province, is shown in the following statement:—

182. The large importation of sugar by sea especially from Mauritius is worthy of notice. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes as follows:—

"The production of beet-root sugar on the continent of Europe continued in the same extensive scale, causing prices to be extremely low, especially for Java sugar. Probably this is one reason why the imports into Calcutta have been so large during the past year, the low prices in the European markets causing growers to look out for other markets in which to sell the produce. The principal countries sending sugar to Calcutta were—

"The greatest advance has been in imports from Mauritius, and as there has been no increase in the production in that island, there is no doubt that a larger portion of the crop has been diverted to India. This is also evident from the fact that there were larger imports from Mauritius into other Indian ports."

183. The following remarks are extracted from the general administration reports for 1886-87 of the Commissioners of the Presidency, Rajshahye, Patna, and Bhagulpore Divisions, regarding the condition of the sugar industry in those divisions:—

Presidency Division.—24-Pergunnahs.—"The principal manufacture of the district is that of gur and sugar both from cane and the date palm. It is carried on throughout the Bussirhat and in parts of the Baraset sub-division. The outturn of gur from the date palm in the Bussirhat sub-division during the past year is estimated by the sub-divisional officer at 3,70,000 maunds, rather less than one-half of which was sold in a raw state locally or exported to Calcutta and elsewhere, the rest being converted into sugar. The local price of gur from the date palm is quoted at Rs. 2-4 to Rs. 2-12 per maund, and of sugar from Rs. 6 to Rs. 7-8. The area of land cultivated with sugarcane in the Bussirhat sub-division is estimated at 2,500 bighas, yielding about 75,000 maunds of gur. About one half was sold locally or exported, the other half being converted into sugar at the local manufactories. The price of gur produced from the cane varied from Rs. 3 to Rs. 3-4 per maund, and of sugar from Rs. 11 to Rs. 12. The sub-divisional officer of Baraset has not given any estimate of the relative outturn of gur and sugar from the date palm and cane in his sub-division. He mentions, however, that from the 45 factories in the town of Goberdanga alone, the exports of refined sugar by road and rail to Calcutta amounted to 32,768 maunds, requiring about 1,00,000 maunds of gur for their production. Unfortunately 19 of the refineries were burnt down lately by an extensive fire, which consumed nearly the whole of the Goberdanga bazar, and considerable stores of sugar at the same time were destroyed.

Nuddea district.—Next in importance to indigo comes the manufacture of date sugar and molasses, the chief sites of which are Santipore and Kissengunge.

Jessore District.—"As regards sugar, the Collector states that full information canno be supplied, as some of the sub-divisional officers have not furnished the required statistics. The number of factories, which is very large, varies every year, and some of them are so insignificant that it is difficult to collect accurate statistics without a special staff for the purpose. The figures given show that the total outturn of the district was about 4,00,000 maunds, of which about 2,22,000 maunds were manufactured in Jhenidah, 1,60,000 in the Sudder, 16,500 in Bongong, and the small balance is divided between Narail and Magura. The outturn is some 64,000 maunds higher than that given for the previous year. Prices varied from Rs. 5 to Rs. 8 a maund.

Rajshahye Division.—"Molasses is manufactured more or less in every district. In Pubna the outturn was less than that of the previous year, as the sugarcane was damaged by high floods. The manufacturers around Pubna use Messrs. William Renwick's sugarcane mills, which are let out at a cost of Rs. 20 to Rs. 25 each for a month. Molasses is largely made in Dinagepore, Rajshahye, Bogra and Rungpore. In Rajshahye and Bogra the cultivators use the Behea mills in large numbers, and prefer them much to the ordinary country-made ones."

Patna Division.—"Sugar is manufactured in four districts—Gya, Shahabad, Sarun and Durbhunga. The only figures given by Gya are for the subdivision of Jehanabad, which produces a lakh of maunds of gur. Coarse sugar is manufactured in the Arwal, Makdumpore and Daudnugger refineries. In Shahabad the trade is said to flourish well: the figures prove it. This year 49,525 maunds were worth Rs. 5,00,621, or a little over Rs. 10 a maund. Last year quantity and quality were both lower: 44.908 maunds were only worth Rs. 3,37,203, or about Rs. 7-8 a maund. From Sewan the Sub-divisional Officer reports:—"The sugar trade has continued to revive, the last sugarcane crop was a good one, and the prices higher, and that the Behea mills are superseding the country-made mills all over the Sewan sub-division." Madhubani with part of the sudder subdivision of Durbhunga is the only other place where sugar manufacture is considerable. This trade is one admirably suited to the country, and to be encouraged in every way. The neat and effective iron mill is easily carried from place to place and let out on hire. The small cultivator sets up his mud furnace under any tree, and with the refuse cane for fuel, produces clean good gur in a few hours. The country beparis carry the gur off on pack-bullocks or carts to bazar or sugar refinery. It ought to be one of the most paying occupations for cultivators of a little bit of good land."

Bhagulpore Division.—"The manufacture of molasses is carried on in the Jamui subdivision of Monghyr, and in Kharakpur in the same district. A large number of Messrs. Thompson and Mylne's sugarcane presses are in use. The cultivation of sugarcane and the manufacture of sugar in Bhagulpore, especially in the south of that district, have gone on increasing. The crops of the year, however, were rather damaged by too much rain The Collector anticipates an increased export of crude sugar from North Bhagulpore as a result of the extension of the Behar Railway."

Exports.

185. The quantity of drained sugar exported during the last year showed an increase of 37,324 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and of 18,639 maunds as compared with 1884-85, but the volume of trade under undrained sugar remained almost the same as in the other two years. The supply exported by sea was distributed as follows:—

Regarding drained or refined sugar, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, offers the following remarks :—

"The exports of sugar have been gradually decreasing for the past four years until they have now reached figures of absolute insignificance. There is no doubt that Bengal sugar cannot compete with the produce of other countries in neutral markets in ordinary times, especially when the range of prices has been so low as during the past few years. The local demand is also generally sufficient to take off the production, and in addition during the past year the importations from foreign countries reached very high figures, the total being 136,873 cwt. This seems to indicate that the condition of the people is becoming more prosperous year by year."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

186. After converting drained into undrained sugar at the rate of one maund of the former to 2½ maunds of the latter, the total of the year's traffic aggregated 19,49,426 maunds under imports, and 7,95,125 maunds under exports. The surplus of imports over exports would thus amount to 11,54,301 maunds against 11,75,846 maunds in 1885-86, and 12,03,266 maunds in 1884-85.

TEA, INDIAN.

188. There was a considerable increase during the past year in the quantities carried to and from Calcutta, but the out-turn of the season's crop consisted chiefly of the commoner kinds of tea, the average price according to the customs returns showing a falling off from 10 annas per lb in 1884-85, and 9 annas 9 pies per lb in 1885-86, to 9 annas 6 pies per lb in 1886-87. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, offers the following remarks on the subject :—

"The year 1885-86 was a fairly good one for tea proprietors. Prices were higher than in the previous year, although the production was larger The past year has been almost the reverse of this. The enormous increase in the outturn, nearly 16 millions of lbs, has been too much for the market to carry off at profitable rates to growers, and the results have been most unfortunate. Prices have been lower than ever known before, and losses in many cases must have been suffered. Dividends have certainly been paid by some gardens, but they were much smaller than in the previous year, and most companies have made no return to shareholders. There is no doubt that tea proprietors must be prepared to face the probability of a continued low range of prices. The production is rapidly increasing owing to the new gardens and extensions coming into bearing, and with the low prices of last year, it appears hopeless to expect higher prices during the current year with an estimated increase in outturn of 6½ millions of lbs. The competition from Ceylon is also becoming very formidable, especially for gardens in the Darjeeling district.

"The crop consisted largely of the commoner kinds of tea, and it was in these descriptions that the fall in prices was most felt as the better kinds realized fairly average rates, and in some instances very high prices were paid.

"Efforts have been made by private individuals or firms to work up a business in Indian tea with Italy, and small shipments amounting to 8,887lbs. were made to the various ports of that country during the past year. The Indian Tea Association have been moved in the matter, and they have made a small grant to aid in this effort to introduce a tea trade with Italy."

189. The following accounts of the tea industry in these provinces are given in the Divisional Administration Reports for the past year :—

Chittagong Division.—"The export of tea from Chittagong rose from lbs 956,732 to lbs 1,034,994, an increase of lbs 78,262, but the value as entered in the Custom House was no less than Rs. 99,415 lower than in 1885-86, owing to the low prices obtained. The total value in the year under report was Rs. 5,84,307 against Rs. 6,83,722 in the previous year.

"Of the above amount only lbs 3,154 were shipped for England direct, the balance going to Calcutta. Planters differ much in their estimates of the past season. Those who look at quantity, report that it was a good one, while those who judge by the prices obtained say it was a very bad season. The industry is a success in the Sudder Sub-division, but the gardens in Cox's Bazar have failed, and are, I understand, about to be abandoned."

Chota Nagpore Division.*—"Of the two tea producing districts in Lohardugga, the year was not very favourable for the growth of tea. The weather was cold and stormy, and the flushes retarded for want of warmth, while the plants were further very much injured by small caterpillars in September and October. In Hazareebagh, however, owing to the good and sufficient rainfall, the outturn in all the gardens exceeded that of the previous year."

190. The report submitted by the Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division shows that the number of gardens in the Julpigoree and Darjeeling districts rose from 298 in 1885-86 to 327 in the past year, the area under cultivation from 55,847 acres to 61,671 acres, and the yield from 12,674,297 lbs to 14,623,500 lbs.

Imports.

191. The supply carried to Calcutta was in excess of the figures for 1885-86, by 68,180 maunds, or 8·47 per cent., and in excess of the imports of 1884-85 by 1,55,653 maunds, or 21·69 per cent. Compared with 1885-86, the increase was most marked in the consignments carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway, which amounted to 2,75,315 maunds during the year, against 1,96,163 maunds in 1885-86. The quantities brought by inland steamers and by sea were very much the same as in the previous year, while the returns of the East Indian Railway decreased from 24,051 maunds in 1885-86 to 16,593 maunds in 1886-87. The different provinces from which the supplies were received during the past three years, are shown in the following statement:—

With regard to the fluctuations in the foreign trade, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes—

"The exports of tea have advanced during the past year by 14 per cent. and were again the highest yet reached. The United Kingdom took nearly the whole of the increased outturn, the shipments to Australia showing a decline, while to America the exports continue to be small.

"The advance to the United Kingdom, as compared with the year 1885-86, was 14½ per cent. This advance of course is the result of the increased crop, and not to any falling off in the imports from China, as the following figures of importation into the United Kingdom show:—

	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.
From British East Indies ...	66,084,947	68,635,100	80,987,351
„ China	144,410,328	139,838,344	145,111,596

"The low prices ruling for Indian tea have caused a large increase in consumption at the expense of China tea, as the following figures showing the deliveries of these two kinds will show:—

	1884.	1885.	1886.
	lbs.	lbs.	lbs.
China, &c.	155,416,000	151,877,000	146,224,000
Indian (including Ceylon)	64,217,000	68,895,000	Indian 68,420,000 Ceylon 6,244,000

"While Indian and Ceylon tea together have increased by about 6 millions, there was a falling off in China of 4½ millions, the proportions of the total quantity delivered now being—

	Per cent.
China, &c.	66·2
Indian	31
Ceylon	2·8

"This displacement of China tea by India has made itself so perceptible that it was stated by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in his budget speech, that it had interfered with the revenue derived from tea in the United Kingdom. This could only arise through less Indian tea being required in comparison with China. This statement should certainly force upon the attention of consumers the fact that Indian is intrinsically more valuable than China tea. If this occurs the further loss of revenue to England may not altogether be without benefit to India.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

198. The excess of exports over imports amounted to 81,544 maunds, against a similar deficit in imports over exports of 28,255 maunds in 1885-86, and 59,384 maunds in 1884-85.

Average price of tea.

199. This article has been valued in the returns appended to this report at the rate of Rs. 42 per maund, or 8 annas 2 pies per ℔ which is the Calcutta brokers' valuation for the year, against Rs. 52 per maund, or 10 annas 1 pie per ℔ in 1885-86, and Rs. 60 per maund, or 11 annas 8½ pies per ℔ in 1884-85.

Imports.

201. The import trade shows a falling off of 7·67 per cent. on the trade of 1885-86, and of 3·53 per cent. on that of 1884-85. The supplies brought to the Calcutta market by country boats, were 10,654 maunds, and 26,833 maunds, in excess of the figures of 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The quantities carried by the Eastern Bengal State Railway fell off by 43,124 maunds, as compared with 1885-86, but they exceeded the weight carried in 1884-85 by 20,088 maunds. The road traffic showed a decrease of 17,121 maunds, and 85,920 maunds, as compared with the two years 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The imports by the East Indian Railway advanced by 9,456 maunds, and 12,509 maunds, but those by inland steamers showed a decrease of 11,518 maunds on the returns of 1885-86, and an increase of 3,692 maunds as compared with 1884-85. The fluctuations in the sea-borne imports were normal.

202. The following comparative statement shows the importation of tobacco from the several provinces, during the past three years:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.

Last year, the imports from Bengal showed a decrease of 12·63 per cent., and those from Behar an increase of 57·94 per cent., as compared with 1885-86. The tobacco crop in the Rajshahye Division was damaged by hailstorms during the past year. The outturn of the harvest in the Rungpore

District, where the staple is grown most extensively in Bengal, was below the average. The following extract from the General Administration Report of the Rajshahye Division, gives an account of the crop in the division during the year under export:—

"As reported in the previous year, the cultivation of tobacco is not extensively carried on except in Rungpore. In Rajshahye the outturn of the crop was a little less than that of the preceding year owing to the tobacco plants having been unfavourably affected by a hailstorm in February.

"In Rungpore the cultivation of tobacco is carried on to a large extent. The Collector reports that the young plants were damaged a good deal by hailstorms, and had in many instances to be replanted; on the whole the crop was somewhat less than an average one in this district. In Julpigoree, where the outturn is estimated as 9 annas against 16 annas of the previous year, the failure was due to the crop having been utterly destroyed in some parts of the district by hail. The short outturn in Darjeeling is attributed to untimely and unusually heavy rains."

In the Nuddea District, the Commissioner of the Presidency Division writes, "the year was not favourable for this crop, and the trade in it consequently has fallen off to a large extent." In Behar, however, the crop was good.

In connection with the trade with foreign ports, the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks as follows:—

"The exports of unmanufactured tobacco have declined during the past year in comparison with 1885-86 by 7 per cent., and the figures are the lowest tabulated. The largest quantity has again been exported to the United Kingdom, after a year of small shipments, and there have been advances to France and Mauritius also against decreased exports to Spain—Gibraltar and Belgium. A small shipment was made to Italy against none for the two preceding years.

"The decline in the exports of tobacco during the past two years is due to diminished production, which in turn has been brought about by the very low prices obtainable for the Indian produce in the European markets. When other kinds of tobacco are very low in price in Europe, the Indian article cannot compete with profit, and the ryot turns his attention to crops giving a better return and grows only sufficient tobacco for local consumption The high rate of duty on tobacco in England completely drives inferior sorts out of the market"

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

207. After deducting the exports from the imports, there remained a surplus of 1,64,578 maunds, against 1,98,628 maunds in 1885-86, and 2,04,693 maunds in 1884-85.

CHAPTER XI.

INLAND AND SEA-BORNE TRADE OF CHITTAGONG.

THE sea-borne trade of Chittagong is dealt with in the report of the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, on Trade and Navigation. It is noticed in this report for purposes of comparison with the inland trade.

The inland trade of Chittagong carried by country boat has been registered for eight years by the Customs establishment at Chittagong, with the special object of obtaining statistics of the entire trade, carried on viâ the Sundeep Channel between Chittagong and Naraingunge. The total weight of the inter-local trade of Chittagong carried by country boats during the year 1886-87, as compared with the two previous years, was as follows:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Imports	19,82,753	26,69,925	28,91,199
Exports	6,19,522	7,21,635	30,42,702
Total ...	26,02,275	33 91,560	59,33,901

These figures show that there was a considerable increase in this trade, viz., of 74·96 per cent. over the traffic of 1885-86, and 128·02 per cent. over that of 1884-85. The improvement is partly due to good harvests in the eastern districts, and partly to a brisk demand for export, as well as for local consumption.

2. In the import trade, which advanced by 8·29 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, the figures under fire-wood, timber, rice, raw cotton, gram and pulse, and betelnuts, showed a marked increase; the improvement in exports was due to larger despatches of bamboos and salt. The total value of the inland and sea-borne trade during the past three years, is shown below:—

		Imports.	Exports.	Total.
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Inland trade ...	1884-85	77,29,259	18,78,726	96,07,985
	1885-86	76,45,714	21,66,681	98,12,395
	1886-87	78,11,713	41,25,977	1,19,37,690
Sea-borne trade ...	1884-85	1,12,30,570	1,03,16,828	2,15,47,398
	1885-86	94,85,595	1,13,25,446	2,08,11,041
	1886-87	1,17,93,941	1,12,79,372	2,30,73,313

These figures indicate a large increase in the trade of the Chittagong port. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division makes the following remarks on the condition of the sea-borne trade during the past official year:—

"The total value of the trade of the port increased by Rs. 22,62,272, and the figures exceed even the phenomenal year 1884-85, the cause being the large increase in the quantity of jute exported. The increase is chiefly in foreign trade, which has increased by Rs. 14,00,834, while inter-portal trade accounts for the balance of Rs. 8,61,438.

"Foreign imports have nearly reached the figures of 1884-85, and there is this great difference between the two years, that whereas there was a large undisposed of surplus of imports in 1884-85, the year under report closed with very small stocks of the chief articles of commerce. The value of imports for the past three years is shown below:—

	Rs.		Rs.		Rs.
1884-85 ...	6,03,841	1885-86 ...	2,27,277	1886-87 ...	5,78,742

"The increase is chiefly due to salt (Rs. 82,960) and oils Rs. (2,03,661). Foreign exports have increased by the large sum of Rs. 10,49,050, due almost entirely to jute, the quantity of which increased by 323,413¾ cwts. and the value by Rs. 27,00,682. There was also an increase in the quantity and value of paddy shipped. All other articles show a decrease, but it is petty under all headings, except rice, in which the decrease in quantity was 366,073, cwts. and in value Rs. 16,62,758.

"Inter-portal trade fluctuations are shown in the following table :—

	Imports, value.	Exports, value.	Total value.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1885-86	92,58,318	32,58,051	1,25,16,369
1886-87	1,12,15,199	21,62,608	1,33,77,807
Increase in 1886-87 ...	19,56,881	......	8,61,438
Decrease in 1886-87 ...	.....	10,95,443	......

"The whole increase in the value of imports is due to jute, other articles showing on the the whole a decrease. The decrease in the value of exports is due almost entirely to rice. Cochin alone accounts for a decrease of over 2 lakhs in rice, and Bombay of over 4½."

3. Lime and Limestone.—The import trade by country boats during the past year showed an increase of 41·71 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and of 2·68 per cent. as compared with 1884-85. The increase is ascribed to greater demand for local consumption. The total quantity imported from Naraingunge by country boats was 35,286 maunds, against 27,310 maunds in the preceding year.

4. Caoutchouc.—The total value of caoutchouc exported by sea-going vessels was Rs. 1,925, showing an advance of Rs. 1,163 over the trade of 1885-86, but a falling off of Rs. 6,555 as compared with 1884-85. The unsettled state of the Lushai country has interfered with the development of the traffic in this article.

5. Cotton, raw.—According to the boat traffic returns, the exports of raw cotton rose from 4,106 maunds in 1884-85, and 6,585 maunds in 1885-86, to 25,010 maunds in 1886-87. The quantities sent to Calcutta direct were nearly twelve times as great as those of the previous year, and those carried to Naraingunge were nearly four times as great. Against the increase in the latter case, however, there was a corresponding decrease in the quantities despatched by sea-going vessels, the total exports being nearly the same as in the previous year, as the following comparative figures of the past three years will show :—

To Naraingunge from Chittagong.

Year.	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1884-85	792	22,684	23,476
1885-86	3,500	22,906	26,406
1886-87	12,880	14,043	26,923

6. Cotton twist and yarn.—The total value of the import trade carried by coasting vessels under this head was Rs 1,84,537, showing a decrease of 4·65 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and of 16·04 per cent. on those of 1884-85.

7. Cotton piece-goods, European.—The total value of the import trade carried by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 15,81,113 against Rs. 17,84,928 in 1885-86, and Rs. 18,63,168 in 1884-85. These supplies were entirely derived from Calcutta, there being no trade with England direct. The decrease as compared with the previous year, is said to be due to large stocks being in hand at the beginning of the year. The value of piece-goods sent by country boats to the interior of the Chittagong district was Rs. 2,55,800 against Rs. 4,07,600 in 1885-86, and Rs. 5,90,971 in 1884-85.

8. Jute, raw.—Owing to a good demand for export to the United Kingdom, the import trade in raw jute showed a great recovery during the year, the total quantity carried to Chittagong from Naraingunge by sea-going vessels being 35·43 per cent. in excess of the trade of 1885-86, and 4·84 per cent. below that of 1884-85. In the case of the exports by sea to England, the figures exhibited a rise of 33·03 per cent. and 22·49 per cent. as compared with those years, respectively, as shown below:—

Exports to the United Kingdom from Chittagong.

		1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
Quantity...	Cwts.	1,063,268	979,029	1,302,439
	Mds.	14,47,226	13,32,567	17,72,765
Total value	Rs.	61,88,602	54,70,413	81,71,095

The condition of the jute trade is thus described by the Commissioner of the Chittagong Division:—

"The year under report shows a very large increase in this trade, due to the removal of causes of depression detailed in the last year's report. Freights from Naraingunge to Calcutta were again charged at their normal rates, with the necessary consequence of a large increase in the quantity of jute shipped from here.

"The freight question may now, I think, be held to have been fought and decided, and it is clear that it cannot pay to carry jute from Naraingunge to Calcutta at the rates at which it can be brought here. I have already stated that I think the rates at which it is now brought here are unduly low, but owing to the bad class of vessel employed, the importing firms have large extra expenditure to incur in keeping up steamers to tow the brigs, and still more in insurance. This will be entirely avoided if a railway be made, as the danger of loss between Naraingunge and Chandpore is nil, and the ferry could be worked very cheaply. One steamer could start in the morning from Naraingunge, taking two loaded flats, arrive at Chandpore by 10 A.M., and return the same day, taking two empty flats with it. The time occupied being 3½ to 4 hours in the down journey, and 5 to 6, according to season, for the up."

9. Gunny bags.—The gunny bags imported by coasting vessels from Calcutta during the year were valued at Rs. 91,391, showing a decrease of 30·56 per cent. and 10·41 per cent. as compared with the figures of the two years 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively.

10. Cocoanuts.—The boat traffic returns showed an importation of 1,643,730 cocoanuts, being a considerable falling off of 3,383,966 in number as compared with 1885-86, and of 2,609,110 when compared with 1884-85. The decrease is said to be due to a larger number of cocoanuts having been imported from the Maldives.

11. Rice and paddy.—The total quantities of rice and paddy imported into Chittagong by country boats during the past year are compared below with the figures of the two previous years:—

The quantities of rice and paddy sent to foreign countries from Chittagong during the past three years, were as follows:—

		1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
Rice	Cwts.	407,442	623,261	257,188
	Mds.	5,54,573	8,48,327	3,50,061
Paddy	Cwts.	Nil	6,612	14,929
	Mds.		9,000	20,320

The decrease in the exports of rice amounted to 58·73 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and to 36·87 per cent. on those of 1884-85. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division complains that the past year has been the worst rice season in a trade point of view, that has been known for many years. He writes:—

"The causes of this are various. A large quantity of rice which usually comes from Noakhally, and even farther north was this year diverted to Brahmanbariah, and there was therefore short importation. Prices were high at the beginning of the season, and buyers soon found they could not give these prices and make a profit. Rates therefore fell, and the ryots then held on. Both officials and mercantile men agree that a large part of last year's crop is still in the hands of the ryots.

"The main cause, however, is that during the past year there has been but one European firm buying in Chittagong, and there was therefore no competition. Brokers soon came to know this, and supplies ceased to come in. The European firms are the only buyers of boiled rice, and the course of trade would therefore naturally turn to Calcutta, where competition would be found.

"As regards the foreign trade, that with Mauritius has decreased very greatly, due to the protective duties on beet sugar having depressed the sugar industry. Trade with the French West Indies has disappeared with the failure of the French firm here. Last year the trade with the British West Indies is the only one that has kept up at all, and even that was greatly depressed."

After deducting the exports to foreign countries from the supplies imported by country boats, there remained a large surplus, as shown below:—

		1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
Rice	Cwts.	172,607	214,710	633,954

	Mds.	4,26,694	9,52,463	6,52,229

According to the coasting trade returns, the quantities of rice and paddy sent to the different ports in India from the Chittagong port during the past three years, were as follows:—

		1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
Rice	Cwts.	146,116	208,256	31,597
	Mds.	1,98,880	2,83,458	43,007
Paddy	Cwts.	203,532	432,088	75,270
	Mds.	2,77,034	5,88,120	1,02,451

The heavy falling off in the inter-portal trade during the past year, is thus explained by the Commissioner:—

"It is, however, the inter-portal trade that has suffered most severely, and last year, with the exception of the exportations to Cochin, there was practically no trade, for the very simple reason that rice could be exported cheaper from other ports. The main cause of all this is the flood in the Megna, and it shows how sensitive trade is to any disturbing cause."

12. Hides and skins.—Last year the total value of the export trade by coasting vessels under this head was Rs. 2,23,847, showing an increase of Rs. 21,942 as compared with the trade of 1885-86, and a decrease of Rs. 40,106 on that of 1884-85. The increase is said to be due "to short exportation in the previous year."

13. Oils.—The traffic under this head represents for the most part transactions in Kerosine oil, the trade in which is in a flourishing state; American oils have almost entirely taken the place of the oils which used to come from Burmah. The quantity brought to Chittagong by coasting vessels was valued at Rs. 1,06,448 against Rs. 1,12,211 and Rs. 1,12,330 in 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The quantity imported by country boats was 5,510 maunds, against 5,136 maunds in 1885-86.

14. Salt.—The quantity of salt imported from the United Kingdom and other countries, was 3,51,272 maunds against 2,69,088 maunds in 1885-86, and 6,30,270 maunds in 1884-85. The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division writes:—

"The salt trade has recovered itself to a very great extent during the past year. Though not reaching the totals of 1883-84, and the following year, I consider the trade is on a more healthy footing than it was in these years. The season closed with a very small stock in bond, and the importations did not exceed the demand."

The exports from Chittagong by country boats during the past three years, were:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
To Chittagong	1,92,053	1,01,557	1,68,566

„ Other districts	4,982	5,306	6,682
Total ...	2,40,684	1,45,497	3,48,600

Besides these supplies, the quantity of salt exported to Naraingunge by coasting vessels was 1,59,412 maunds, against 1,24,786 maunds in 1885-86, and 2,83,002 maunds in 1884-85.

15. Mustard and rape seed.—The total quantity of mustard and rape seed imported by country boats was 15,760 maunds, against 14,696 maunds in 1885-86, and 32,442 maunds in 1884-85.

16. Spices.—Owing to better production, the imports of betelnuts by country boats amounted to 40,315 maunds, being 27,920 maunds in excess of the figures of 1885-86, and 21,931 maunds over those of 1884-85. In "all other kinds" of spices, the total quantity, imported was 15,456 maunds, against 7,689 maunds in 1885-86, the increase being due to a good chilly harvest. According to the returns of the sea-going vessels, the total value of imports under this head amounted to Rs. 48,398, against Rs. 35,913 in 1885-86, and Rs. 27,362 in 1884-85; the increase was under different sorts of curry spices imported to meet a greater demand. The total value of exports aggregated Rs. 50 620, against Rs. 11,194 and Rs. 41,565 in those years, respectively; the increase in value was chiefly on account of large quantities of chillies having been exported to Calcutta and Naraingunge.

17. Sugar.—The import traffic under this head carried by country boats during the past three years, was as follows:—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Sugar, drained	7,341	7,553	5,563
„ undrained	48,384	40,559	43,084

The total value of sugar imported in sea-going vessels during the past year, was Rs. 88,270 against Rs. 83,679 in 1885-86, and Rs. 97,155 in 1884-85.

18. Tea, Indian.—The quantity of Indian tea sent to Calcutta from Chittagong by coasting vessels was 1,010,427 lbs., against 884,649 lbs. in 1885-86, and 853,491 lbs. in 1884-85. The quantity sent direct to the United Kingdom was 3,154 lbs. against 5,339 lbs. in 1885-86, and 3,847 lbs. in 1884-85.

19. Tobacco.—The import trade along the coast was valued at Rs. 1,22,216 against Rs. 98,736 in 1885-86, and Rs. 83,065 in 1884-85. This article was largely imported from Naraingunge for home consumption, as the local produce was limited. The total quantity of tobacco sent to Chittagong from Naraingunge during the past three years, was as follows :—

Year.	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1884-85	10,004	7,234	17,238
1885-86	6,656	13,936	20,491
1886-87	10,300	10,478	20,778

The quantity exported to foreign ports was 1,521 lbs. (19 maunds) against 9,673 lbs. (118 maunds) in 1885-86, and 16,176 lbs. (196 maunds) in 1884-85

CHAPTER XII.

SEA-BORNE TRADE OF ORISSA.

THE total value of the import and export trade of the Orissa ports during the past three years, exclusive of Government transactions, will be seen from the following table:—

2. The decrease in the total value of the goods traffic registered during the past year, was 22·86 per cent. on the returns of 1885-86, and 24·27 per cent. on those of 1884-85. The value of the imports exhibited a decrease of 13·27 per cent. and 10·95 per cent. as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively, while the value of the exports fell off by 32·92 per cent. and 37·01 per cent. respectively. Compared with 1885-86, the gross trade of Balasore showed a decline of 18·24 per cent. under imports, and of 20·16 per cent. under exports. In Cuttack, the import trade remained the same as in the previous year, but the export trade showed a falling off of 42·34 per cent., while the figures of Pooree showed a decrease of 18·64 per cent. under imports, and of 31·13 per cent. under exports. The Commissioner of the Orissa Division remarks:—

"In Balasore there has been a decrease in the total value of trade in the year under report as compared with the two preceding years; but it is still higher than in any of the other years. The year 1884-85 was marked by an unusual advance in the sea-borne trade owing to continuation of abnormal circumstances noticed in that year's report, but this high standard has not been maintained in the year which followed (1885-86), and in the year under review (1886-87) there was a further decrease. But the figures for the year under report show a considerable increase, as compared with the earliest two years (1882-83 and 1883-84)—a fact which indicates that, irrespective of exceptional circumstances, there has been a steady increase in the trade of the port. In Cuttack, the trade has been gradually falling off owing to its diversion to Chandbally in Balasore. In Pooree, there was a considerable improvement in the trade of the port in 1882-83 and the following two years, but this was not sustained in 1885-86, and there was a further decline in the year under report."

3. The following statement shows the different districts which contributed to the trade during the past year, as compared with the two previous years:—

Compared with 1885-86, the trade with Calcutta fell by 18·33 per cent. under imports, and by 14·95 per cent. under exports. while the decrease in the trade with other Indian ports was 18·87 per cent. under the former head, and 59·00 per cent. under the latter. In the case of the trade with foreign ports, there was a rise of 52·96 per cent. under imports, but a falling off of 27·96 per cent. under exports.

5. Apparel.—The total value of the imports under this head showed a decrease of Rs. 77,743 and Rs. 1,45,477 as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively.

6. Cotton twist and yarn.—There was no change in the quantities of European cotton twist and yarn imported during the past year, as compared with the previous year, but the figures were below the trade of 1884-85 by 3,870 maunds, or 10·42 per cent. In the case of Indian twist and yarn, however, the supplies showed a decrease of 5,543 maunds on the trade of 1885-86, and of 1,037 maunds on that of 1884-85. The Collector of Balasore observes that foreign twist is partly displacing country-made twist.

7. Cotton piece-goods.—The total value of European cotton piece-goods imported into Orissa was Rs. 13,13,883, showing a decrease of Rs. 4,09,925, or 23·77 per cent., on the figures of 1885-86, and of Rs. 2,01,793, or 13·31 per cent., on those of 1884-85. On the other hand, the value of Indian piece-goods rose from Rs. 865 in 1884-85 to Rs. 950 in 1885-86, and to Rs. 8,027 in 1886-87.

8. Gunnies.—The falling off in the number of bags imported was 47·76 per cent. as compared with 1885-86, and 62 77 per cent as compared with 1884-85. This decrease was in connection with the dull market in the rice trade, and the demand for this staple was abnormally high during the two previous years.

9. Metals.—The aggregate decrease under metals amounted to 6,875 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and to 14,315 maunds as compared with 1884-85. The trade in brass and copper was 19 16 per cent. below the preceding year's figures, and that in iron, 20·46 per cent. The consignments of these articles are regulated according to local requirements, and the fluctuations noticed above are not abnormal.

10. Oils.—The trade in oils showed a remarkable increase, the total quantity imported being 76,152 maunds, or 28,551 maunds in excess of the previous year's figures, and 40,604 maunds over those of 1884-85. This increase is accounted for by larger importations of kerosine oil from New York.

11. Ghee.—This trade fell off by 770 maunds as compared with 1885-86. The decrease was due to fears about adulterated ghee, which for a time almost completely stopped importation.

12. Spices, betelnuts, and tobacco.—The fluctuations under these heads are not important, the condition of the trade being almost stationary.

13 Salt.—The total quantity of salt imported during the past year was 1,42,018 maunds, against 40,752 maunds in 1885-86, and 7,769 maunds in 1884-85. The Collector of Balasore remarks that Liverpool salt is driving the locally-manufactured article out of the Balasore market.

14. Treasure.—The figures under this head have steadily fallen from Rs. 14,57,137 in 1884-85 to Rs. 7,85,420 in 1885-86, and Rs. 2,84,459 in 1886-87. It is stated that the native merchants having availed themselves of telegraphic monetary arrangements, the figures for imports and exports of treasure have been affected.

15. The quantities and values of the important articles of traffic exported from Orissa during the past three years, are given in the subjoined statement :—

16. Rice and Paddy.—Owing to good harvests in other parts of the country, there was no demand for these cereals from Orissa, and consequently the quantity of rice exported showed a decrease of 8,78,457 maunds as compared with 1885-86, and of 11,74,639 maunds as compared with 1884 85. The trade in paddy also declined from 5,19,592 maunds in 1884-85 to 3,48,493 maunds in 1885-86, and 1,85,067 maunds in 1886-87. The different districts of Orissa which contributed to the rice trade during the past three years, will be seen from the statements below :—

In his remarks upon the rice trade, the Collector of Balasore observes-

"In 1884-85 the quantity of rice exported was larger than that exported in 1885-86, but the comparatively high price of grain in the latter year (Rs. 2·26 against 1·84 per maund) went to swell the value of the exports, which amounted to Rs. 3,25,873 in 1885-86 and Rs. 2,85,728 in 1884-85. This year the harvest is plentiful, but in other districts also there has been an abundant crop, so that the price fell as low as in 1884-85, viz., Re. 1·8 per maund."

The destination of the exports of rice and paddy, port by port, during the past three years, was as follows :—

17. Hides.—The exports of hides amounted to 205,488 pieces, against 226,931 pieces in 1885-86, and 378,669 pieces in 1884-85.

18. Lac.—The trade in stick lac is steadily increasing, the total quantity exported having amounted to 7,719 maunds, against 6,080 maunds in 1885-86, and 3,789 maunds in 1884-85. The Collector of Balasore says that stick lac comes from the Tributary States, and is gradually gaining importance as an article of trade.

19. Oil-seeds.—The different sorts of oil-seeds exported during the past three years, were—

	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.

20. Timber and sleepers.—The trade under this head showed a decline of 17,847 maunds and 85,553 maunds as compared with 1885-86 and 1884-85, respectively. The Collector of Balasore attributes this decline to the completion of work on the coast canal.

21. Silver.—The total value of the exports shewed an increase of Rs. 84,124 as compared with 1885-86, but a decrease of Rs. 6,89,988 as compared with 1884-85.
